	We were dispatched to domestic violence in progress. While en route, Ofc. Oxford and Ofc. Reidford said they were fighting with someone. Upon arrival, we observed the suspect in handcuffs and still trying to fight with Ofc. Oxford and Ofc. Reidford. There were several other people surrounding Ofc. Oxford, Ofc. Reidford, and the suspect. I started getting bystanders to back up. Ofc. Harrington then observed the suspect attempt to kick Ofc. Reidford while sitting on the ground. The suspect continued to try and fight officers and he was handcuffed by his feet as well. He finally stopped resisting and started cooperating. We were informed by Ofc. Oxford that when they arrived, they attempted to detain the suspect and he attacked them. Ofc. Oxford had a contusion to his right hand and Ofc. Reidford had a laceration on his forehead. After the suspect had calmed down and stopped resisting, we started to separate parties and spoke to the daughter and mother of the suspect. We first spoke to the daughter who stated they had been drinking and they got into an argument over the car keys. The suspect wanted to leave and the daughter took to keys to prevent him from leaving and driving while intoxicated. This upset the suspect. The daughter stated she hid the keys in her shirt and this upset the suspect even more. The suspect then grabbed her mother, pushed her up against the kitchen sink, and started hitting them both. She then stated the suspect threatened to grab a knife and stab her. The daughter was concerned for her safety and said she felt he was going to follow through with his threat and he was rummaging through the kitchen drawer. She said this is when they ran outside and the first officers had arrived. We attempted to speak with the mother however, she did not want to cooperate and said that no physical altercation had taken place. Ofc. Harrington observed she had a blood spot in her left eye and red mark above her left eye. I then spoke to the suspect who stated his daughter and her mother had been had been arguing and that he stepped between them in order to defend his wife. He stated that he never hit his daughter. The suspect was taken to Deaconess to be treated for his injuries.
