The victim then stated that she left out of the building to walk around to the back and was confronted by the suspect outside. According to the victim, the suspect grabbed her by her arms and told her she isn`t going anywhere and that he was not going to give her anything back. The victim then informed officers that her other family members on scene began to approach the suspect so he ran to the vehicle and locked the doors. According to the victim, the suspect informed them that he was "going to get the steel." The victim and two other family members informed officers that he pulled a black handgun from under the drivers seat and pointed it at the victim while he was seating in the drivers seat. The victim stated after he pulled the gun out and pointed it at her, he heard police sirens and left the scene. The victim stated the suspect attempted to possibly run her over but she later admitted to running in front of the vehicle in an attempt to stop him from leaving. Officers then contacted the suspect via telephone to get his side of the story. The suspect informed officers that the victim showed up to his job, Catfish Willy`s, to get her keys back to her vehicle. The suspect then stated that he met with the victim outside to speak with her. According to the suspect, the victim was talking to him peacefully before her other family members showed up with tasers. The suspect then stated as they were approaching him the victim then began to push his head and reach for his pockets. The suspect informed officers that he grabbed her wrist to stop her and then ran back to the vehicle. The suspect did admit to officers that he stated, "I`m going to get the steal," as he ran to the vehicle. However, the suspect informed officers that he only said that because they tried to attack him with tasers and that he did not have a gun in the car. The suspect then stated as he tried to pull away the victim and other family members approached the vehicle and tried to pull a window down to tase him. According to the suspect, he put the car into reverse to get out and then drove away from the scene.
