LW 1922453 Narc-poss Methamphetamine	Wedding, James Lawrence (W M, 49) VICTIM of Narc-poss Methamphetamine (C), at 1763 Briarwood Ct, Evansville, IN, between 13:50, 10/10/2019 and 17:36, 10/10/2019. Reported: 10/10/2019. Officers responded to a hit and run report with property damage. The victim informed officers that they tried multiple times to contact the person, via telephone, that was involved but she stopped responding for three hours before victim called the police. According to the victim, the suspect backed out and hit his vehicle just after he had finished backing out. The victim informed officers that the suspect gave her name and telephone number to the victim but stopped responding to come back to the scene so everyone could speak with the police. Officers checked the suspects driver status through BMV records to confirm that she operated the vehicle while suspended prior during the time of the incident. Officers tried to make contact at the suspects home address but she was not home and was informed by the baby sitter that she was not home. Officers then drove around the neighborhood to locate the suspects vehicle that was involved in the hit and run. Officers located the vehicle and the suspect came out of the house shortly after. The suspect admitted to being in the accident. However, the suspect gave the victim a false insurance policy number, she did not answer her telephone when we tried to call her and left the scene without providing anyone where she would be if the police were contacted. Officers then placed her in handcuffs and read her Miranda Warning. Before placing her in the police cruiser, she was searched and a white crystal substance in plastic bag was found in her back left pocket.		CHRISTIAN, D. C.

He reported the mother of his children had a protective order against him, but he was allowed to contact her in reference to their children. Officers arrived and met with the caller, identified as the victim, at the above intersection. He reported he was supposed to get visitation with his two juvenile daughters this evening, beginning at 15:45 hours. He reported he sent a text message to the mother of his children, identified as the offender, at approximately 15:35 hours to let her know he was there to pick them up. The victim stated it had been months since the offender had allowed him to see his daughters. The victim did not have court documents with him. Officers went to the address, 3120 Hartmetz Avenue, and spoke with the offender. She did not deny it was the victim's evening for visitation, but stated she was not going to release the children to the victim because she had not received a message from him. She noted she changed her cellular phone number, but had not given it to the victim because she reported it was on file with the court. The offender was argumentative with officers, refused to provide basic information and was uncooperative. She stated the victim could take her to court if he desired, but she was not allowing him to see their children. Officers observed numerous prior incidents similar to this, ending with a custody dispute or interference report. Similarly, the offender was uncooperative with officers. The victim reported the prosecutor's office and courts have not done much for him in the way of forcing the offender to allow him to see his children. Officers submitted a report to the EPD Juvenile Investigations Unit for follow-up. No arrests were made at time of report.	SMITH, S. P.

Found Property	On 10/10/2019, at approximately 21:02 hours, the Evansville Police Department (EPD) was requested in the 700-block E Negley Avenue in reference to suspicious circumstances. The callers reported a red passenger car stopped behind a silver Chevrolet Silverado and occupants were observed moving between the two vehicles, which seemed odd considering the truck had been there for a few weeks. Callers believed narcotics were a factor.
	Officers arrived on scene and observed a white male, later identified as the offender, enter the driver's seat of the pickup truck, a gray 2006 Chevrolet Silverado. The red passenger car was not on scene. The pickup truck appeared to have vehicle troubles, like it was being worked on.
	The offender exited the vehicle, officers approached him and spoke with him on a consensual basis. They advised he was free to leave at anytime, but he continued to speak with us. He reported he was in the process of moving to Gulf Shores, AL. We explained the situation to him and he understood why people would think what the neighbors thought. He allowed us to search the vehicle and was free to stop us at any point. During the search, officers located a red smoking pipe with burnt residue consistent with burnt marijuana. The paraphernalia was seized and no other items of evidential value were located.
