LW 1923157 Narc-poss Marijuana, Hash Oil, Hashish, Salvia, Synthetic	home. The victim was arrested for 2 active Writs of Attachment. While enroute to jail the victim stated that 2 or 3 nights ago the suspect struck her to the left side of the face just under the eye. There did appear to be a very faint scratch mark. The victim was barred from the address. The owner admitted that he allowed her to come back several months prior. Records removed the barr/ban from the system. The victim stated that 2 or 3 nights ago she had gotten into an argument and she tossed a plastic bottle that she thought the lid was on at the trash can. She missed the trash can and the lid came off spilling the contents of the bottle on the floor. The victim stated that the suspect struck her to the left side of her face leaving a little mark. She also stated that it caused a chip to the front of her top teeth. There was dental wear/damage to her front teeth but I cannot say the cause. I asked why the victim did not call police when this happened and she said that the suspect convinced her not to cause he did not want his children taken away from him. The victim stated that the suspect is an alcoholic and has been getting more violent with her. She stated that this occurred in front of the two children. The victim and the suspect have been in an off and on relationship for 3 years. They have currently been back together for 3 months. They share no children together. The victim was given a case number, advised of shelters, how to pursue charges and protective orders.
