Battery - Class B Misdemeanor

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
[bm]	On 10/07/2019, at approximately 15:30 hours, the Evansville Police Department (EPD) was requested at the intersection of N Sixth Avenue / Cody Street in reference to a battery report. The caller reported the incident occurred at a nearby address.
	Officers arrived on scene and met with the caller, identified as the victim. He reported he had been at a friend's residence, located at 1315 Cody Street, and stated a male, identified as the offender, kicked the bedroom door down, displayed a kitchen knife and threatened him, stating "I will kill you." He stated another male, later identified as the involved other, had lacerations on his arm from intervening between he and the offender. The family asked the victim to leave and as he did so, he reported the offender tackled him. The victim stated he exchanged words with the offender prior to him retrieving a knife. No injuries were observed on the victim's person. Additionally, the victim was highly intoxicated.
	Additional assisting units went to 1315 Cody Street to learn what happened. The offender was located and identified. He was an adult and lived with his mother, identified as the witness. As officers spoke with him, it was apparent the offender had a significant intellectual disability and diminished comprehension. His mother, the witness, stated the incident did occur, noting her son, the offender, was upset with the victim about the victim possibly drinking his bottle of Coke. She stated he grabbed a knife and went after the victim. However, she also stated the victim had attempted to batter her 15-year-old daughter the evening prior. She stated he had been drinking Fireball Whisky all day.
	The involved other was spoken with and officers observed a bandage on his right arm, consistent with the victim's statement about getting cut by the offender as he intervened between them. He was not cooperative with officers and refused to give any specific information. He declined to prosecute the offender.
	While the incident occurred, given the totality of the circumstances and the offender's significant intellectual disability, officers did not feel an arrest was warranted and instead thought it was best for the Vanderburgh County Prosecutor's Office to make the decision. The victim was given a ride away from the scene to calm the situation. No arrests were made at time of report.
LW 1922197 Intimidation	Rainey, Amanda Leigh (W F, 44) VICTIM of Intimidation (C), at 3217 Corbierre Ave, Evansville, IN, between 19:30, 10/07/2019 and 19:58, 10/07/2019. Reported: 10/07/2019.		SAMMET, N. P.
	The victim stated that she went outside in her back yard to take her cat out when the suspect pulled down the alley in an older white Toyota Camry. The suspect told the reporter that if he sees her down at the Fall Festival with a Don Dudley that he would kill them both. The victim has a protective order protecting her from the suspect that was issued on 2/6/19 and expires 2/6/2021 (82C011707F6004421). The victim and the suspect were in a relationship but have been separated since about February of this year. The victim was given a case number and advised on how to follow up with charges.

LW 1922203 Battery- Hff Domestic [am]	Officers were dispatched to the listed address in reference to a custody dispute report. Upon arrival, officers met with the mother who advised that her son is with the father in Missouri. Officers gave the mother a case number and a report was made. Beste, Gina Arainas (W F, 49) VICTIM of Battery- Hff Domestic [am] (C), at 1311 Shanklin Ave, Evansville, IN, between 21:45, 10/07/2019 and 22:00, 10/07/2019. Reported: 10/07/2019. On 10/07/2019, at approximately 21:56 hours, the Evansville Police Department (EPD) was requested at 1311 Shanklin Avenue in reference to a domestic violence in progress. The caller reported her mother and boyfriend were fighting. Moments later, she stated the boyfriend left on his bicycle, he was last scene headed south on N Fulton Avenue. Officers arrived on scene, met with the victim and ensured the boyfriend, identified as the offender, had left the residence. The victim reported she and her boyfriend had been in an intimate relationship for approximately three months. The victim complained of pain primarily to her mouth, but also stated her head was hurting. The victim showed officers a front tooth was loose and officers could see bleeding from her gumline around the tooth. She declined medical attention. The victim reported that earlier this afternoon she and the offender had gotten into an argument because he had, in her opinion, flirted with men and she made a comment to him about it, which upset him. This evening, as they were lying in bed to go to sleep, she asked him for kiss goodnight and he yelled at her that he was mad about what she had said to him earlier. She again asked for a kiss, which caused him to yell at her. She reported he struck her head several times as they lied in bed and then the offender placed his thumb against the front of her teeth and shoved her head into the bed, leaving nowhere to go. The victim`s daughter called 9-1-1 and the offender left the scene before officers arrived. A report was submitted to the EPD Domestic Violence Investigation Unit for follow-up. At time of this report, he was not located and no arrests were made.		THIRY, K. D.
