LW 1925005	1114 W Delaware Street, but signed the property over to the victim approximately 6 years ago. She stated they had attempted to allow the victim to gather her property from the residence over the years, but she refused. Officers spoke with the victim over the phone and explained they did not observe the female on the property, therefore were unable to make an arrest, but offered to complete a report. The victim understood and wanted to pursue charges for trespassing. Officers returned and spoke with the offender. She reported she had owned both 1110 and 114 W Delaware Street for some time and signed the property in question over to the victim in 2013. She stated she stored her belongings in the residence and had not been formally evicted by the victim. She reported she did not pay any bills and nothing was in her name at the property, thereby acknowledging she did not have contractual interest in the property. She was advised if the property owner started getting rid of her property, it would be a civil complaint. However, she was told again she had been barred by officers the evening prior and therefore could be arrested for trespassing. A report was submitted to the EPD Misdemeanor Investigations Unit for follow-up. No arrests were made at time of report.		DEBLANC, M. E.
