LW 1925584	had occurred on 11-15-2019. On scene I spoke to K. Tenbarge (listed as Reporting Party # 1). Tenbarge works at the above location as Head of Security. Tenbarge stated that the security office has video of a white male suspect that was recorded walking around the hospital basement between the hours of 1800 and 2000 on 11-15-2019. Tenbarge stated that upon further investigation, they found that a tablet style media controller was taken from the basement auditorium and a laptop computer had been taken but recovered under a bush in the parking lot. Tenbarge was working on getting the brand of the media controller but stated that it is valued at approximately $3000.00. Tenbarge stated that the laptop the suspect had taken was wiped of all programs and information. Tenbarge stated the area the suspect was in is not a secure area, but it is not common unauthorized personnel to be down there. I observed the surveillance video and watched as a white male wearing a black type track suit with a hooded jacket and dual white piping down the legs. The male appeared to be 35 to 45 years old, approximately 5-10 to 6-02 with a medium build. I observed as the male walks into a basement hallway where several items and boxes (containing the laptops) are stored. The male begins looking through the boxes removing items then putting them back. Other video showed the male entering the auditorium, then leaving a short time later.		GROSSMAN, K. A.

Reported: 11/18/2019. Police were dispatched to 220-F N. Rotherwood in reference to a criminal mischief report. On scene, I spoke with the victim. She said she was being driven home by a friend, when she observed the suspect in traffic with them. The victim said after the suspect saw her, the suspect turned around and started following them South on Weinbach. Due to being followed by the suspect, the victim told her friend to keep driving and not go back to her apartment. The victim said when they passed the street that led to her apartment (Franklin), the suspect turned off toward the apartment complex, and didn't continue to follow them. When the victim finally returned home around 20 minutes later, she found all four tires on her vehicle, which was parked next to her apartment building, had been slashed. A witness approached the victim, and told her he observed a white female with brown hair park a brownish Pontiac Grand Prix in the parking lot. The female then got out of the vehicle, and went around the victim's vehicle, bending over near every tire. After the suspect left, the witness walked over to the victim's vehicle, and saw all the tires on the vehicle were flat.		HELM, J. E.
