LW 1927488	Flint said that they had hired OF-K.B. June of 2018 to take care of the front desk of the business. One of K.B. responsibilities was to take payment from clients. A few days ago it came to their attention that there was a problem, when a client went to pay for a service with their gift card and there was no money on it. The client said that the gift card had never been used. When they started checking into if the gift card had been used they found that it had been used to pay for another client's services. The other client had paid cash for their service, K.B. then rang the service up as being paid for by using the other client's gift card. At the end of the night K.B. then pocketed the extra money that was now in the drawer. At this point Ahh Spa has gone back through 3 days of transactions. The total loss so far is $1000. There is still a whole years worth of transactions to go through to get a final count on the losses. They will also supply video evidence of these transactions.		GILES, L. L.
