| | Upon arriving at St Vincent Hospital I spoke with the Victim-A.H. | | |
| | A.H. advised me that she is currently living in Cincinatti Ohio with her sister. She left her husband OF-K.H. the first part of December due to infidelity. He wanted to work on the marriage and she was willing to do so but wasn't willing to live with him. | | |
| | K.H. had contacted A.H. in regards to coming to Cincinatti today to have breakfast with her. She was agreeable to this. He arrived at her home this morning around 10am. They were to go out to eat in Cincinatti Ohio and talk about things. K.H. soon was on interstate 71 and A.H. knew that there was a problem, that he wasn't taking her out to eat. A.H. told K.H. that she wanted out of the truck. K.H. refused and continued toward Indiana. A.H. tried continually to get K.H. to stop the truck and let her out. He advised her that she needed to come home so that they could work on their marriage. A.H. began having a panic attack at some point and tried to get the truck unlocked to get out. A.H. unlocked the truck, K.H. stopped the truck and grabbed hold of A.H., she threw her purse out of the truck in an attempt to be able to get out and get help. K.H. refused to let her out of the truck and twisted her arm back behind her, making her lean out of the truck to grab her purse. While doing this all of A.H.'s weight was on her twisted arm causing extreme pain. | | |
| | K.H. got A.H. back to their residence in Evansville Indiana. K.H. wanted A.H. to get out of the vehicle and go into the house but she refused, telling him that her arm was hurt and that she needed to got to the hospital for treatment. He agreed to take her to the hospital. | | |
