Reported: 12/28/2019. Officers were dispatched to the above listed address in reference to a male subject kicking the reporters door and making threats that he was going to harm her children. Officers arrived on scene and recieved information that the alleged Offender was in the apartment across the hallway. Officers made contact and found the Offender to be heavily intoxicated. The Offender was found to be barred and banned from the Reporters address. I advised the Offender to stay in his apartment and sleep the alcohol off. As I was speaking to the Reporter, The Offender began to slam his fist into his door and kept opening his door and yelling at the reporter and I. I told the Offender one more time to go back into his apartment and do not come out. The Offender stepped over the threshold of his door, out into the hallway and would not go back into his apartment. I placed the Offender into handcuffs and escorted him to the police car. I recieved a portable breath test reading of 0.28 and transported the Offender to Deaconess Hospital for jail clearance. Once clearance was issued by jail staff, the Offender was transported to the Vanderburgh County Jail and booked in on the above listed charges.	HALLMARK, B. G.
