LW 1927093 Incident Rpt Misc	Incident Rpt Misc (C), at 335 S Red Bank Rd, Evansville, IN, between 21:45, 12/07/2019 and 21:47, 12/07/2019. Reported: 12/08/2019. No victims listed. On 12/07/2019 a run was made to 335 S Red Bank Rd in reference to a general complaint. The reporting party, Dustin, advised a group of individuals had thrown an object at his vehicle then left. Dustin went into Walmart and when he returned found cheese had been thrown onto the window of his vehicle. At this time the subjects were gone and a report was not able to be taken. A short time later Dustin observed the subjects leaving the lot of Taco Bell near 4500 W Lloyd Expy in a white car. Dustin stated he attempted to take a photo of the subjects license plate but they took off so he followed them. Dustin ended up running into the back of the white car and an accident report was taken. The occupants of the white car were identified and have been listed in the report.		ELFREICH, C. A.
LW 1927095 Theft All Other < $750	Richter, John Robert (W M, 43) VICTIM of Theft All Other < $750 (C), at 2021 Old Business 41, Evansville, IN, between 16:05, 12/07/2019 and 03:50, 12/08/2019. Reported: 12/08/2019. Officers were dispatched to the listed address in reference to a theft report. Upon making contact with the victim and the suspected offender, Officers were told that the victim's cell phone had been stolen. The victim was extremely agitated with his girlfriend/suspected offender. The victim continued to blame his girlfriend for stealing his cell phone and possibly giving it to other Officers, as a conspiracy to get him in trouble. Officers were allowed to search the apartment and, in particular, the girlfriends belongings. To no avail the cell phone was not located. The victim was extremely paranoid and portrayed signs of being in a mentally altered state. Officers provided a case number and the process to follow up pursuing charges to the victim.		SHAHINE, S. L.
LW 1927096 Traffic-accident Hit&run /prop [bm]	Keith, Timothy A. (W M, 45) VICTIM of Traffic-accident Hit&run /prop [bm] (C), at 207 S Royal Ave, Evansville, IN, between 05:15, 12/08/2019 and 05:19, 12/08/2019. Reported: 12/08/2019. Officers were dispatched to a motor vehicle accident with possible shots fired at 300 S Green River Rd. When Officers arrived a white Lincoln Aviator was found against a tree on the lot of this address, at the corner of Green River Rd and Tippecanoe Dr. The vehicle had heavy front end damage but was unoccupied. A black male was locate in the area but did not meet the initial age description officers had been given over the air. The male stated He had heard the noise and had walked down to see what had happened. He did not appear to be injured and seemed to be acting normal when Officer S. Toney spoke with him. Since he was not believed to be involved his information was gathered and he was sent on his way. Officers were able to make contact with the owner of the vehicle and he decided to come to the scene. He said nobody had permission to drive the vehicle and that it had been stolen from his residence at 207 Royal Ave. The vehicle had been left in his driveway unlocked but the key had not been left in it according to the victim. He said the vehicle was last seen in his driveway around 0200 hours on 12/08. Crime scene was called to process the vehicle. During the investigation Crime Scene Detective Pieszchalski located the key fob inside the car.		GREEN, R. E.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 1927097 Found Property	While Officers were speaking with the victim two females who claimed to be witnesses walked up. They said they had been parked at pump #1 and that two males in the Lincoln Aviator had pulled up next to them after first going into the store. They said they spoke for a few minutes before the Aviator left. The girls stated they then heard what sounded like gun shots and saw the Aviator crash into the tree. The driver and a passenger jumped out and ran off. They stated the subject that Officer S. Toney had spoken to and released was the driver and that he would be on camera going inside trying to buy black and mild's. They said the males had been denied this purchase by the clerk and that is what the guys were trying to get them to buy for them when they spoke in the parking lot. Crime scene spoke with the clerk and reviewed video. The individuals buying the black and mild's had not been denied and left on foot to the North several minutes before the accident. The occupants of the Aviator never went inside the store as the witnesses had stated. The victim had a personal tow done on the vehicle after it had been processed.		WARD, M. R.
LW 1927098 Criminal Mischief [bm]	Found Property (C), at 1100 Thompson Ave, Evansville, IN, between 16:00, 12/07/2019 and 07:08, 12/08/2019. Reported: 12/08/2019. No victims listed. The RP noticed this item on the north side of her home, just east of her driveway. Initially, the RP thought the item was a suitcase but it was found to be a portable speaker. The speaker was not there at approximately 1600 when she took her dog for a walk. There were no identifying markings on the speaker other than the serial number that would assist with locating the owner. Nothing of evidentiary value was located on the exterior of the speaker. A check of RMS found no recent theft reports of this type of speaker and it was entered into evidence as found property.		WARD, M. R.
LW 1927099 Theft Of Bicycles	Simmons, Julie Ann (W F, 38) VICTIM of Criminal Mischief [bm] (C), at 5340 Nottingham Dr, Evansville, IN, between 00:05, 12/08/2019 and 08:00, 12/08/2019. Reported: 12/08/2019. At approximately 2300 hours the victims heard the suspect outside of their apartment window beating on the door and shouting. Victim two is in the process of divorcing the suspect. The victims believed that the suspect was intoxicated because his speech was slurred and he shouted. The suspect continued to beat on the windows for approximately ten minutes. The victims chose to ignore the suspect and went to bed. When the victims walked out to their vehicle this morning they noticed that the windshield was broken and there were several dents in the body of the vehicle. The damage appeared to have been caused by a blunt object. I spoke to the witness who was parked next to the victim's vehicle. The witness stated that he was called to work at approximately midnight and he did not observe any damage to the vehicle at that time. The victims have a small metal patio set near the door where the suspect was beating on the door. One of the metal patio chairs was found damaged in front of the victim's vehicle and it appeared to be the blunt object that was used to damage the vehicle. Both victims were advised how to obtain a protective order. Osborne, Fredrick Lee (W M, 65) VICTIM of Theft Of Bicycles (C), at 2173 Brenner Ct, Evansville, IN, between 22:00, 12/07/2019 and 09:32, 12/08/2019.
