	Leave at 2217 Washington Ave. Upon arrival we made contact with the victim (later identified as A. Drake). Drake stated she lives at the above address with her roommate, later identified as G. Porter (listed as Suspect # 1). Drake stated earlier in the morning she had asked Porter to leave due to his drug use and he refused. Drake then stated a verbal argument began and she left the residence. Drake returned to the residence at approximately 0900 hours. Drake advised that Porter had left the residence and agreed to have Condiff and I sweep the house to ensure he had left. Drake attempted to open the front door, but it had been blocked by a chair from inside. Once inside we observed the residence ransacked. The entertainment center had been overturned, mirrors and glass had been broken, and there were numerous holes in the walls throughout the house. Drake stated that this was not the way she left the residence. Officer Condiff and I ensured all the windows were locked and advised Drake of several options to better secure the residence. Officer Condiff and I explained to Drake that this was a civil matter, but we would complete a report for her records. Drake was given a case # for her records and Officer Condiff went over the eviction and protective order processes with Drake and advised her get a copy of the report from EPD.
