Reported: 01/22/2020. Hansen contacted me in reference to a female that had attempted to cash a fraudulent check for $450 in the drive thru on 01-18-2020 around 1030 hrs. The female was a passenger in an unidentified vehicle that arrived in the drive thru wanting to cash a check. The check and Drivers License presented were left on scene with the window teller as the two offenders drove away. The teller, Obanor had told them prior to driving away that it would only be a few more minutes that she needed to verify some information. The Drivers License left on scene with the fraudulent check matched the identity of the female passenger according to the window teller. The check and License was collected and turned over to our financial crimes unit. The account owner was notified by the reporter and the owner stated that she had no knowledge of that check being written or the offender in this case. The check number was out of sequence which raised the flag for the teller to verify prior to cashing. No money was exchanged during this transaction. End		CARLILE, S. E.
