LW 2004282	Battery-strangulation	Officers were dispatched to a child custody dispute. Officers determined no parenting guidelines were set or being followed and the parents, Javion Fox and Breanna Buell, were verbally agreeing on visitation until time of this report. Breanna stated Javion was withholding their daughter, AF, against any visitation they previously agreed to. Javion stated they had verbally agreed to let the child stay with him tonight and would be returned in the morning for school. Javion stated he had to work in the morning but his girlfriend, Dayton Williamson, could transport AF to Henderson, KY and drop her off at school. Javion stated this is when Breanna became aggressive and disagreed to the terms demanding AF be brought to Henderson by tonight. Javion showed me harassing and threatening messages from Breanna where she continually threatened Javion and stated she would travel to Evansville and cause problems at his house. Javion stated Breanna moved to Henderson Ky which is a violation against the original visitation terms. Javion showed me where he asked Breanna to stop texting and threatening him at 2109hrs to which she continued to message him. Prior to leaving Javion's residence, Breanna arrived at the residence. Breanna demanded I remove her daughter from Javion so she could take her back to Henderson. I advised Breanna I would not be removing AF. I gave Breanna the case number and stated it would be for a child custody report and she needed to leave the residence. I advised both Breanna and Javion to go back to court and set guidelines and to follow them strictly.
