Reported: 03/05/2020. Officers were dispatched at approximately 0312 to Deluxe Inn Motel for a 911 hang. The female stated she needed someone there as fast as they can and "that stuff would be in the parking lot". The female then hung up. The female then called back and stated the male was beating her up and stole something. The line then discounted after a lot of screaming. Officers arrived on scene. Officers unsure of what room the female was in located the room by the multiple items lying outside of the room. As officers were getting out of their vehicles, they observed a white female exit the room and a black male follow her. Officers approached the couple as the female began to bang on the door to the left of the couple's room. A man, half asleep, answered the door. Unaware of what was going on, was told by officers he could go back to sleep. Officers separated the male from the female and began to ask them each what happened tonight. As one of the officers began speaking to the female she began to scream as she talked, making unreasonable noise at approximately 0320 in the morning. The female was asked to be quiet. The female would lower her voice for a short period of time and then she began screaming again while hitting herself. Officers were told by both the male and female that they had been married for nine months and they both got into a loud verbal argument (nothing physical). Still attempting to figure out the details of the argument, the female raised her voice for the third time throwing her jacket into the parking lot. The female then proceeded to call the officer a "bitch". The female was told again if she does not lower her voice then she would be going to jail. No sooner did the officer tell her to be quiet, the female began yelling at her husband and then called him a "nigger". Officers then told the female to stand up and she was placed in handcuffs. The female was searched incident to arrest, then transported to VCCC. The female	FAHSE, A. G.
