Due to the inconsistency of what has been told to them, as to what happened with the O. Epperson and the actual injuries, they felt that there might be abuse going on. I spoke with IO-1 and IO-2 in the waiting area. They said that their mother, O.Epperson, had called IO-2 on Sunday March 15 around noon. She told him that she was really sick and to not come over. IO-2 said that he went over to check on her. He said that his mother told him that she thought that she had food poisoning and was vomiting heavily. At some point IO-1 also arrived to help care for her mother. After several hours of her ( being sick they contacted her doctor who prescribed some nausea medication suppositories. After using the medication their mother began acting unusual. They said that she seemed to be hallucinating. At some point their mother was laying down sleeping. They said that they needed to get some rest, so IO1 laid on a bed and IO2 laid down in bed with his mother. They later noticed that it sounded like their mother was gurgling or had fluid in her chest. That's when they decided to call for an ambulance to take her to the hospital. Detective Sgt W Hunt and Detective M Evans arrived to continue the investigation. Crime Scene D Vonderscher arrived to take photos and gather evidence.

The victim stated she was in the common area, when the suspect became angered and grabbed her by the arm. The victim, missing extremities, stated the suspect began yelling. The suspect then, still grabbing her by the arm, attempted to pull her out of her wheelchair. The victim stated if it was not for one of the CNA holding her in her wheel chair the suspect would have pulled her out, causing her to fall to the ground. The witness stated she was putting gloves on, when observed the victim at the snack bin. She then observed the suspect go over to the victim, grab her by the arm, and begin to pull on her. The witness ran over to the victim, held her in the wheelchair until the suspect let go. The suspect continued to call the women "bitches" and other obscene names. Officers attempted to ask the male what happened, but the male stated he did not want to talk. The male was later CITed and taken to Deaconess Mid-Town for		FAHSE, A. G.
