LW 2007664 Auto Theft- Automobiles	Beckerle, Cara Darlene (W F, 41) VICTIM of Auto Theft- Automobiles (C), at 403 E Iowa St, Evansville, IN, between 00:58, 04/24/2020 and 05:00, 04/24/2020. Reported: 04/24/2020. Officers were dispatched to a theft in progress. The reporter stated a female was in the caller's vehicle. The reporter stated she has been helping the female out since she is homeless. The female took the reporter's car keys and has been taking the reporter's vehicle without her permission the last two nights. The female was said to be wearing a pink hoody and was last seen west bound on Virginia. Officers arrived in the area. Officers arrived in the area coming in from the west on Virginia and then turned south bound on Elliot toward Michigan. Officers drove the area unable to locate the suspect. Officers then turned their marked patrol vehicle around and began to head north bound on Elliot. Officers crossed over Virginia and observed a white female on a bicycle heading east bound through an alley between the 500 block of Iowa and Virginia. Prior to arriving in the area, officers ran the suspect in RMS. The suspect was imaged. As officers pulled behind the female on the bike, noticed the female's hair to be similarly colored to the picture in RMS. As officers got closer to the female, the female pulled her bicycle in front of a Chevy Trail blazer parked behind 511 E Iowa. Officers parked my vehicle and got out, to find the female took off running through the backyard of 511 E Iowa leaving her bicycle. Officers ran to the front of the yard, and lost sight of her. Officers informed dispatched of the description and stated they lost sight of the female as other officers came into the area. As officers walked back to their vehicle, they heard movement in the back yard of 519 E Iowa. Officers pulled	FAHSE, A. G.

Officers ran to the front of the home to meet the female on the west side of the home. Officers told the female to turn around and to place her hands behind her back. The female actively resisted pulling her arms away from the officer. As officers attempted to grab her arms to gain control for the second time, the female pulled away again. Force was used to gain control of the female and she was placed into handcuffs after a struggle on the ground. All force ceased at that time and no more force was needed. The female was searched incident to arrest and placed in the back of the transport wagon. Officers located the female's purse and a pink jacket matching the description called in by the reporter. Officer located the key belonging to the victim's 2014 Hyundai Elantra. The key was returned to the victim and it was confirmed the key in fact went to the vehicle. Officers spoke with the victim about the incident. The victim stated the suspect took her vehicle without her permission at 0058 hours on 4/24/2020 according to her outdoor security cameras. The victim then stated the suspect returned the vehicle back at 0500 hours on 4/24/2020. The victim then went outside to confront the suspect and she took off running. The victim gave chase from her home to the corner of Iowa and Elliot. The victim then returned home before she called the police. The victim stated the suspect stole her multi-colored E-Cig, the outdoor security camera, debit card, and house key. Once the suspect and officers arrived at the jail, Officers read the suspect Miranda. The suspect stated she understood her rights and wished to talk to officers. The suspect stated the victim allowed her to borrow her vehicle, so the suspect could go see her ex-boyfriend. The suspect returned with the vehicle and the victim began to "act out". Officers asked the suspect if she was staying with the victim. The victim gave officers a weird facial expression, as if she had no idea what officers were talking about, and stated she did not stay with the victim. While going through the suspect's purse, officers located a multi-colored E-Cig, a debit card made out to the victim, a house key, and the victim's bank statements for the month of March. The suspect also had a prior conviction for theft out of another county and was booked on multiple charges.	Shanklin, Keith Damont (B M, 57) VICTIM of Traffic-accident Hit&run /prop [bm] (C), at 1354 Ridgeway Ave, Evansville, IN, between 08:00, 04/24/2020 and 08:05, 04/24/2020. Reported: 04/24/2020. Officers were dispatched to the 2700 block of Pollack Avenue for a Domestic Violence in progress. Once on scene officers encountered a black female who was belligerent and intoxicated. Officers spoke with the reporter and he stated that the woman came to his truck in the driveway and tried to get in. The reporter advised that the female had made statements about being hit in the eye by her boyfriend. The reporter stated that a gray mini van pulled up in front of his home. The reporter stated that a black male had gotten out of the van and tried to get the female to get in the van with him. The reporter advised that the male subject made statements about the female being drunk and saying that nothing happened between him and the female. The reporter advised the male subject that he was calling the police. The male subject then left in his van. Officers attempted to question the female on scene but she was incomprehensible for most of the questioning. The female advised that she was hit in the face by the male subject she was with. After further questioning, the female advised that the reporter was the one who had hit her. The female was also unable to comprehend basic questions and did not know where she was at. The female was only able to provide officers with the first name of her boyfriend. The female agreed to go to the hospital. When AMR had arrived, the female refused to go with them to the hospital. The female had been placed on a stretcher and when medical staff began to strap her in, she became upset and began screaming at everyone on scene and unbuckled herself. The female eventually calmed down and was cooperative. The female was transported to the hospital. The female did not have any visible signs of injury nor complaints of pain.		STAATS, C.
