LW 2007445 Altercation At Wendys	Altercation At Wendys (C), at 4610 Lincoln Ave, Evansville, IN, between 07:15, 04/20/2020 and 08:08, 04/20/2020. Reported: 04/20/2020. No victims listed. I was contacted by the RP who wished to file a battery report on the IO. The RP advised me that when he got to work, the IO pushed him three times and made a rude gesture toward him. I called the restaurant, and the manager(WI) answered. The WI advised that due to COVID-19 safety measures, employees are only allowed inside the building through one door. The WI advised me that she was surprised I was calling because the RP was clearly the aggressor. The WI advised that the RP became irate after not being let in and started beating on the windows. The WI advised that when the RP got in the store, he was yelling and threatening other employees, namely the IO. The WI advised that the RP got in the IO's face and threatened to "put her in the cemetery" and also to "Put his sister on her." The WI advised me that the IO admitted to her that she did push the RP away because she felt her safety was in jeopardy due to the RP being too close to her and threatening her.		HASSLER, N. L.

Reported: 04/20/2020. The VI states that she had allowed her friend (OF) to stay with her for a few days until he gets back on his feet. On 03/05/2020, the VI states that she received her H&R Block Emerald Card which contained her income tax check. The VI states that she had over $2,000.00 dollars on her card. She and the OF went shopping, then returned home. On 03/06/2020, she noticed her card was missing. The VI went on line to see if it had been used anywhere. The card had been used at the West side Walmart, North Point ATM (the smoke shop on Stringtown Rd., and the West Side Honda shop on Franklin St. Moreover, she noticed that $2,135.00 had been wiped out from her account. Later that evening, the OF had returned home and observed the VI on the phone. The OF asked who she was talking to, in which she stated police, because someone had stolen and was using her H&R card. The OF asked her to hang up and begged her not to report it. When asked why, the OF stated that he stole the card and would pay her back. The VI agreed and warned the OF that if he didn't, she would press charges. Since that time, the VI still has not received any payment from the OF and she cannot get a hold of him. Every effort she has made to contact the OF was to no avail. every number and contact she has for the OF has been changed. The VI believes the OF has moved back to IL. The VI added that he is on parole out of IL and just got out of prison. Secondly, when the OF made a purchase at the West Side Honda Shop, he purchased a red "crotch rocket" and is usually riding it.
LW 2007477	Gabes VICTIM of Theft- Shoplifting < $750 (C), at 1420 N Green River Rd, Evansville, IN, between 15:40, 04/20/2020 and 16:08, 04/20/2020. Reported: 04/20/2020. Officers were in the Eastland Mall parking lot when they came across a male subject pushing a shopping cart full of merchandise. Officers recognized that the shopping cart belonged to Gabes. The male was walking away from the direction of Gabes and appeared to have just come from that direction. The items in the cart also were not bagged. Officers went to Gabes and asked two employees if anyone had left the store with a cart full of merchandise. Employees advised that there were only two people on the register and that it was possible someone could have stolen items from the store. One employee advised that he would look at camera footage and notify officers if the male subject had stolen from the store. Officers located the male subject with the cart just south of the Eastland Mall parking lot. Officers asked the male subject if he had a sales receipt for the items in the cart. The male subject could not provide officers with a sales receipt. The male subject was detained in handcuffs and advised of his Miranda Rights. The store contacted officers via cell phone and advised that the male subject had walked out of the store without rendering payment for the items in the cart. The male subject was cited for shoplifting and released from the scene. All merchandise was returned back to the store. The total dollar amount for the merchandise was $556.16. One of the store employees was given a case number for the store's reference.		STAATS, C. LW 2007505 Harassment [bm]	Patino, Rayln Marie (W F, 21) VICTIM of Harassment [bm] (C), at 1343 E Indiana St, Evansville, IN, on 04/21/2020, 01:00. Reported: 04/21/2020. VI originally called Records to report that her vehicle had been stolen. During the course of our phone call she discovered via text that her (soon to be ex) husband (OF 1) had taken the title and keys to his parents house then returned with them to take the vehicle. The vehicle is unplatd and not registered at this time, and it was "purchased" from OF2's car lot, so cannot actually be reported stolen. However, VI would still like to report harassment as the offenders know that she is 9 months pregnant and has a one year old that now she has no transportation for, and because she is banned from their property cannot get her belongings out of the car. OF continues to text her making threatening statements and there is a long history of harassment and theft from the OF's against the VI. She is going to attempt to get a PO.	HIRSCH, K. E.
