Reported: 05/17/2020. I, Officer Gibson, knew the listed vehicle to be stolen and on our vehicle hotsheet. I ran the plate to double check and the vehicle came back as stolen. Officers made a felony traffic stop on the vehicle. The only occupant was the listed offender. The listed offender was placed in handcuffs. After the vehicle was cleared I advised the listed offender why we stopped him. The offender explained to me that it was his vehicle and he recovered it yesterday. He stated he sent the Police Department an email saying that he got his vehicle back and that it was repossessed. After finding paperwork in the vehicle and checking the listed offenders ID card, officers verified what the listed offender was saying. The vehicle had a strong odor of marijuana. The listed offender stated he had some marijuana in his front right pocket. Officers retrieved a clear plastic bag with a green leafy substance that later tested positive for marijuana. After running the listed offender through the BMV, his driver status returned as suspended-infraction. The listed offender was cited and released with his vehicle.		STEPRO, A. D.
