	Battery-dv - Bodily Fluid Or Waste [am]
	I was dispatched to the above address in reference to a domestic violence in progress. The suspect had left before officers arrived. The victim and the suspect are not married. The victim does have children, but the suspect is not the father. The children were asleep in another room. The victim stated she and the suspect lived together as a couple. The victim stated she and the suspect got into a verbal argument. The victim stated the suspect decided to gather his belongings and leave. The victim got the key back to her apartment. The victim stated the suspect had forgot a pair of pants. The victim stated she would find the pants and send them to the suspect. The victim stated the suspect began banging on the door and yelling in the hallway. The victim stated the suspect threatened to kick the door in if he were not let in. The victim stated she opened the door so the suspect would not kick it in and she not be responsible for the damage. The victim stated the suspect came in and spit in her face, got his pants, and started to leave. The victim stated the suspect then threw a soda on her as well and said "you can tell them I did that too". The victim stated the suspect left in a Ford Mustang, most likely headed to his parents home in Newburgh.
