LW 2009241 Theft All Other < $750	Riger, James Robert (W M, 70) VICTIM of Theft All Other < $750 (C), at 2418 N First Ave, Evansville, IN, between 14:10, 05/20/2020 and 14:25, 05/20/2020. Reported: 05/20/2020. The VI states he owns a booth at the His & Hers Flea Market on First Ave. His booth`s number is 149. While working, the VI placed his wallet on the counter. A short while later, the VI went to the back of the booth to grab some items and when he returned, his wallet was gone. The VI states that he has no idea who took it, but the Flea Market has cameras and they may have captured images of the OF. The people who manage the Flea Market do not know how to work the cameras.		PYLANT, R. E.
LW 2009242 Intimidation Threat [am]	Harvey, Barbara A. (W F, 59) VICTIM of Intimidation Threat [am] (C), at 3608 Rodenberg Ave, Evansville, IN, between 15:09, 05/17/2020 and 15:09, 05/20/2020. Reported: 05/20/2020. The VI and the OF are currently married, but due to the constant threats of abuse, she has filed for divorce. On Monday, 05/18/2020, the VI and WI were at the VI`s residence, when an argument broke out between the VI and OF. During this, the OF made several verbal threats, one being to punch the VI in the face. As the arguing continued, the OF took a swing at the VI with a closed fist. The VI was able to duck, causing the OF to hit the back door, thus breaking out the glass window. The WI grabbed the VI and told her it was time to leave. While they were in the car, the WI told the VI that she really needed to get a restraining order against the OF, in which she agreed. The WI then transported the VI to the Court House and applied for a protective order (PO). The VI was granted the PO, but it has not been served yet, cause# 82D05-2005-PO-001918. After securing the restraining order, the VI states that the courts had texted the OF and informed him of the impending action that was filed against him. After receiving the text, the OF began calling the VI on multiple occasions. The VI is scared of the OF and wants to press charges for the above mentioned crime. The VI added that the OF has always threatened the VI with physical harm, but this is the only time she can remember where he actually took a swing at her.		PYLANT, R. E.

	Officers were dispatched to a motor vehicle accident with injuries at Louisiana St/ Mary St. The victim was injured and taken to Deaconess. The suspect fled on foot and was not found.
LW 2009259 Battery- Hff Domestic [am]	Mcintosh, Kelsey Nicole (W F, 30) VICTIM of Battery- Hff Domestic [am] (C), at 112 N Bell Ave, Evansville, IN, between 17:23, 05/06/2020 and 19:37, 05/20/2020. Reported: 05/20/2020.		PYLANT, R. E.
	The VI states that she and the OF have been living together for approximately a year and a half. Several months ago, their relationship turned for the worse and the OF began verbally threatening and physically assaulting her. For the past four months, the VI states that the OF has been holding her in their apartment against her will. Whenever the VI would try to leave, the OF would knock her down, physically hold her with his arms wrapped around her torso, and lock the doors. The OF also made her quit her job and he eventually lost his, because he would call in so frequently in order to prevent her from leaving.
	Around 05/05/2020, the OF and VI entered into a verbal argument that

LW 2009262 Theft Firearm	turned physical. The OF had pushed the VI to the floor, into the counter tops, and threw her cat at her, causing a large laceration to her lower right arm. The OF then picked up an ice pick, approached the VI, and told her that if she left, he would kill her, then himself. The OF then changed his story and said he would kill himself, then began slashing his arms with the ice pick. Around 05/07/2020, the VI and OF entered into another verbal altercation. This time, the VI was on the phone with her ex-husband and he heard much of the conversation. The OF threatened to harm himself and her again, if she were to leave. The VI's ex-husband told her to call police and he would purchase an airline ticket for her to stay with him and the kids in Texas. The VI agreed. At one point during the day, the VI was able to sneak a call into 911. Police arrived shortly afterward and the VI was able to collect her things and leave. Now, the VI has discovered that the OF has been selling and trashing much of her property. The VI states that she has photos showing the injuries she sustained from the OF.		TURNOCK, J. L.
LW 2009264 Child-custody Interfere [bm]	Lindsey, Dustin T. (W M, 33) VICTIM of Theft Firearm (C), at 7718 Kaleigh Ct, Evansville, IN, between 00:00, 05/12/2020 and 02:30, 05/19/2020. Reported: 05/20/2020. Officers were dispatched to a theft report. When officers arrived they made contact with the male victim. The male stated that he left his firearm in his car, and the firearm was stolen. The male stated the suspect also took an ipod from the vehicle as well. The male stated he realized this morning at around 0230 the items were stolen. The male was unsure when the items were actually stolen because he has always left the firearm in his vehicle. The vehicle was parked in the driveway of his residence. The male was unable to give a description of the suspect. The gun will be entered into records as stolen. Protected Victim VICTIM of Child-custody Interfere [bm] (C), between 20:27, 05/06/2020 and 20:27, 05/20/2020. Reported: 05/20/2020. Kearia called records wanting to file an Interference with Custody report. Kearia stated that her grandmother (RP) called last week wanting to know if the VI could come and stay with her for a few days. Kearia agreed and dropped the VI off. Today, Kearia called the RP, stating that she would be by in a few minutes to pick up her son (VI). The RP stated she wasn't giving him back, nor does he want to go. Kearia stated that she has full custody of her son and wants him back. I asked Kearia for her grandmother's (RP) number so I can speak with her. I then called the RP. The RP states that she has had the VI for approximately two weeks. The VI is scared to go back home, do to constant mental abuse from Kearia's live in boyfriend. The RP states the boyfriend well yell, scream, curse, and call the VI various insulting names. Moreover, Kearia and her boyfriend are always, arguing, yelling, cursing, smoking "weed" and drinking heavily, when they are supposed to be watching the VI. The RP also states that whenever Kearia's boyfriend gets mad at the VI, he will lock him in his room for hours. The RP added that the VI is scared to go home, shakes when he thinks he is going back, and has nightmares. I asked the RP if she has seen any physical signs of abuse to the VI, in which she stated no. I then called Sgt. M. Saltzman and advised him on what I had. Sgt. Saltzman stated he was fine with the child remaining in the grandmother's custody, until a thorough investigation could be completed. Sgt. Saltzman and I both believed it to be in the best interest of the child. I returned Kearia's call and advised her of what we decided. Kearia was not happy with the decision, but stated she understood. Kearia advised that her grandmother was lying and she would be more than happy to prove it. Kearia added that the only reason she let the RP take her son, was so the VI could spend time with his grandmother and so she and her boyfriend could get certain issues worked out. Both parties were given a case number and told that a detective and CPS would be in touch.		PYLANT, R. E.
