LW 2008320 Harassment [bm]	I, Officer J. Holden, was working in EPD Records when a victim called to report his vehicle had been stolen. The victim stated his ex fiance was driving the vehicle, had a medical emergency, pulled into the lot of 2225 Old Business 41, called AMR, left the vehicle with keys inside, and left with AMR. The victim stated they are currently going through a break up and he had not heard from her in two days. The victim stated his ex fiance called him asking about the vehicle, which is when they realized the vehicle had been stolen. Originally the victim`s ex fiance called in to report the vehicle stolen from the hospital she is staying at. I explained that because the vehicle was not registered to her, the owner would have to file the report. I have spoken to both parties and dispatch advised the vehicle was not in impound and all payments are caught up on the vehicle. The victim was given a case number and advised if he located the vehicle to contact police.	Mcfarland, Melinda G.
