Theft : A : M	I was dispatched to the above address in reference to a theft report. When I arrived I spoke to the victim. The victim stated that she has been sick for the past month with low blood sugar and has been in the hospital. The victim advised that today she noticed that a pill bottle of gabapentin was missing from her room. The victim stated that she looked at her other medications and saw that they had been mixed together. The victim does not know how long this has been going on, but this would explain why she was sick. The medication that she thought she was taking was mixed the wrong medications. This caused her to take too much of the Diabetic medications, which caused the low blood sugar.
	The suspect is the victim's roommate, but since the victim was in the hospital for a month, she is unsure if anyone else was in the home during that time.
	The victim was given a case number.

Case #	Description	Officer
	reported the subject had previously cashed checks on the same person`s account. EPD Officers and an EPD Financial Crimes Detective Sergeant arrived on scene, but the vehicle and subject had left prior to their arrival on scene. Officers spoke with ONB employees and learned they had confiscated the subject`s identification card, later identified as the offender, and the fraudulent check. The check was written on an ONB check in the names of the listed victims to the offender in the amount of $90. While on scene, ONB employees verified the offender had cashed a check on the same account of the same victims the day prior, 06/03/2020, in the amount of approximately $150. ONB employees were able to obtain the suspect vehicle`s registration, which returned to a vehicle matching the description provided. Officers called and spoke with the victims, who reported they had no knowledge of the offender or how he obtained their financial information. In fact, they reported they physically possessed the check with the same serial number, which was blank. However, they reported their check looked different than the check the offender attempted to cash. The offender apparently made the check, which was counterfeit. The victims reported they filed a report with the Evansville Police Department earlier this morning in reference to the incident that occurred the day prior, EPD Case # 20-10120. They reportedly learned of the incident when they checked their bank account this morning and observed the image of the fraudulent check. They stated they physically possessed that check`s serial number as well. When ONB employees were asked if the person in the vehicle that attempted to cash the check appeared similar to the person on the confiscated identification card, they replied it was. A report was submitted to the EPD Financial Crimes Investigation Unit for follow-up. Neither the suspect nor the suspect vehicle were located and no arrest was made at time of report.
