LW 2013115	Controlled Substance- Possess Cocaine Or Narcotic Drug	checking him out and when he turned around it was gone. Mr. Crowley looked all around the register and didn't see it. Mr. Crowley was advised to call the bank immediately and cancel that card. Walmart will have video. Society VICTIM of Controlled Substance- Possess Cocaine Or Narcotic Drug (C), at 1201 E Virginia St, Evansville, IN, between 09:47, 07/20/2020 and 09:58, 07/20/2020. Reported: 07/20/2020. On 07/20/2020, at approximately 09:47 hours, the Evansville Police Department (EPD) was requested on the parking lot of Rally's, located at 1201 E Virginia Street, in reference to a check welfare. The caller reported a white female wearing a black shirt had been asleep in a silver Dodge Neon and was stumbling around on the lot. They asked officers to check her welfare. Officers arrived on scene and located a silver 2001 Dodge Neon parked on the parking lot. A white female wearing a black shirt was asleep in the driver seat of the vehicle. Officers made contact with the female, later identified as the offender Amanda Roxbury, and her actions were jerky, non-fluid and her eyes appeared glassy / distant. She told officers she had been drinking, but that was not what was wrong with her and asked to step-out of the vehicle. Officers had Amanda step-out of the vehicle. Amanda was asked if she owned the vehicle, which she replied she did and was asked for consent to search the vehicle. Amanda consented to the search and as officers began to search the driver compartment area, they noticed an intentionally folded chewing gum foil wrapper placed within the driver's door. Officers slowly unfolded the wrapper and located a tan rock like substance, which appeared to be narcotics. Officers placed Amanda in handcuffs and detained her. Without being asked questions, she made comments about the substance within the wrapper and was unsure why the person she had purchased the substance from placed it within the wrapper. Amanda was advised of her Miranda Rights Warning, which she stated she understood and desired to speak with officers. When asked about the substance, she stated it would be Heroin and Fentanyl was also likely present. She reported she had recently purchased the narcotics and used them earlier this morning. A detective with the Narcotics Task Force was requested to collect the narcotics due to its high potency. A VCSO JTF Detective arrived a short time later and collected the narcotics. He also assisted with the search of the vehicle, but nothing else was located. The vehicle was towed by Tri-State Towing to their yard, located at 1501 N Evans Avenue. The VCSO JTF Detective reported the substance weighed less than 1 gram and field tested positive for both Heroin, a Schedule I Substance, and Fentanyl, a Schedule II Substance. Amanda was arrested, transported to the Vanderburgh County Confinement Center (VCCC) and charged with possession of heroin and fentanyl.	THIRY, K. LW 2013130 Domestic Battery-w/prior Unrelated Conviction For Battery Ag	RESTRICTED VICTIM of Domestic Battery-w/prior Unrelated Conviction For Battery Ag (C), at 1599 Read St/w Morgan Ave, Evansville, IN, between 12:00, 07/20/2020 and 13:22, 07/20/2020. Reported: 07/20/2020.  On 07/20/2020, at approximately 13:14 hours, the Evansville Police Department (EPD) was requested at Garvin Park, located at 45 Don Mattingly Way, in reference to a domestic violence in progress. The caller reported her husband punched her on the eye. There had been previous calls in reference to the subjects in other areas of the city.  Officers arrived in the area and received information the caller, identified as the victim, and her husband, identified as the offender Mark A. Coleman, were inside of a black 1996 Dodge Ram with a red stripe. The victim reported they were leaving the area and as they did so, they passed officers arriving in the area. The vehicle was stopped at the intersection of Read Street / W Morgan Avenue and contact was made with the occupants, Mark and the victim. Both were removed from the vehicle, separated and spoken with.  The victim reported they were previously married for an extended period of time and had divorced, but were now living together again at One Life Studios, located at 100 S Green River Road. She reported Mark's daughter and her significant other were living with them as well. She stated an argument between she and Mark occurred after she had asked Mark's daughter to take care of some legal problems she had been facing. She reported Mark told her to "mind her own business", which caused the argument that escalated to Mark punching her on her eye. The victim's left eye had a fresh red and slightly purple bruise, which was observed by officers. The victim wanted to pursue charges against her ex-husband, Mark.  Officers knew Mark had a prior conviction from 2019 in reference to a domestic battery against the same victim in 2018. The prior conviction for domestic battery		THIRY, K. D.
