Custody Dispute	I was dispatched to 1828 S Taft Ave in reference to a standby. John Perry called police stating that Michelle Perry (Dill) was refusing to allow him to pick up their 10-year-old daughter.
	Officers met with John at the CVS at Boeke Rd/Covert Ave. John provided court paperwork stating that he is to have parenting time beginning every Thursday at 1630 hours. John has parenting time until Friday morning, at which point he and Michelle rotate weekends. John said the child exchange is normally facilitated at his mother's house at 4239 Bellemeade Ave. John says Michelle drops their child off there, the child goes inside with her grandmother/John's mother, and John then picks up the child shortly thereafter when he gets off of work. John said today he called his mother at about 1615 hours to see if their child had been dropped off yet, but she had not. John arrived at his mother's house at about 1710 hours, but neither the child nor Michelle were there.
	I spoke with Michelle at her home, 1828 S Taft Ave. Michelle said she messaged John on the court-monitored messaging app to ask exactly what time their child should be dropped off today. Michelle said John neither replied nor read the message. Michelle said she was parked down the street from the Bellemeade address as she waited for John to arrive per her lawyer's instructions due to previous issues with John being late. Michelle was in agreement that this is different than what they have typically done in the past. Michelle showed me cell phone pictures taken from a vehicle apparently parked around the corner from the Bellemeade address at approximately 1620 hours. Michelle said she waited there for half an hour, but John never arrived so she took their child back to her house.
LW 2014674	Michelle allowed John to pick up their child while officers were present. John requested a police report. John and Michelle were both given case numbers. Harris, Kathern M.
