LW 2014390 Communication- Intimidation	once the vehicle was unable to move, he reported the driver exited the vehicle and was last seen headed north on S Garvin Street. He described the driver as a hispanic male and wore a light colored t-shirt and dark colored shorts. While speaking with the victim, officers learned the victim had an 18 year old son, identified as the involved other. He was reportedly asleep in the residence. The victim woke his son and he spoke with officers. He reported he was still asleep because he had been awake playing video games by himself all night. He initially stated he was unaware his father`s vehicle had been stolen. However, upon further questioning, it became apparent he knew more than he had led officers to believe. He matched the description of the suspect from the hit and run earlier in the morning, he was wearing a white t-shirt and dark green athletic shorts. When asked what he had wore during the evening, he reported he wore the same clothing he had on. He continued to deny any involvement, but it became somewhat obvious he was involved or knew who took his father`s vehicle. During further questioning, the involved other eventually admitted he had taken his father`s vehicle and was headed to a friend`s house on S Green River Road. When asked the route he normally took to / from his friend`s residence, it took him within the vicinity of the hit and run accident. When asked what he struck, he stated he was unsure and admitted he had been drinking E&amp;J. The involved other and his father, the victim, are from the Marshall Islands and spoke a different language with one another. After they spoke, it was apparent his father was disappointed and stated his son told him it was not him. Officers spoke with his son again, he recanted what he had told them and stated he had not taken the vehicle nor been in an accident. When asked if he was protecting someone else, he stated he was not. Officers spoke with several neighbors, one of which had surveillance equipment installed on their residence. Officers were able to review some footage, but had to leave due to the neighbor needing to take care of family. A copy of the footage will be saved for further review. A report was submitted to the EPD Auto Theft Unit for follow-up. A supplemental report will be added to the already completed hit and run report. No arrests were made at time of this report. Hovda, Cynthia Anne (W F, 64) VICTIM of Communication- Intimidation (C), at 321 E Walnut St, Evansville, IN, between 10:00, 08/09/2020 and 11:00, 08/09/2020. Reported: 08/09/2020. An officer was dispatched to 324 NW Sixth St in reference to a harassment report. Upon arrival, the victim stated threats were made toward her by several individuals. The victim was given a case number and advised to follow up with the prosecutor`s office.	MEEKS, N. A.
