LW 2015771 False Reporting; False Informing	The offender stated he did attempt to take the bag, thinking it was his. The offender stated a struggle began between him and the victim. However, the offender stated he never struck the victim and the victim was the aggressor, pushing and shoving on him to gain control of the backpack. The victim seemed to have little concern with a report and when initially asked if she wanted one she stated she did not care, then stated I guess. The victim had no redness or swelling to her face and otherwise no signs of any injury. The victim did not request any medical attention. Both parties were given a case number, the offender was released from the scene, and a report was taken. Society VICTIM of False Reporting; False Informing (C), at 5341 Stonehedge Dr, Evansville, IN, between 21:11, 08/29/2020 and 21:15, 08/29/2020. Reported: 08/29/2020. Officers were dispatched to the listed address in reference to a person with a gun. Upon arrival officers spoke to all parties involved. I spoke with the listed IO. The listed IO stated that the offender and him were arguing over parking at the apartment complex. IO stated that the offender kept parking in front of his building instead of parking by his building. IO stated this left no parking for him. IO stated that he had left a note on the offender's vehicle telling him that he should be parking by his own building. IO stated the offender pulled into the spot again and he said something to the offender about parking there. An argument then ensued between the IO and the offender. IO stated the offender got in his car and left but then came back and parked in the same spot. IO stated the offender got out of his car and the two were arguing again. IO stated the offender then called 911 and by the end of the call the offender told dispatch that the IO pulled and pointed a gun at him. IO stated when the offender got off the phone he took off running to the east, which is away from both parties apartments. IO stated he thought the offender was acting odd and thought he might be messed up on something. I then spoke with the witness. The witness works for Rescare and was out on the patio smoking a cigarette. The WI stated she saw the IO and the OF arguing but that they weren't even being loud. The WI stated it didn't even peak her interest because it didn't look like much was going on. The WI stated she did not see any weapons, and no one pointed anything at the other. Officer Pitt talked with the offender first. Officer Pitt stated the offender was very adamant about the IO pointing a gun at him. I spoke with Officer Pitt and he stated the offender said several times that the IO pointed a gun at him. I then spoke with the offender. The offender changed his story when speaking with me. The offender stated that the IO reached down and picked up something off the ground, then pointed it at him. I asked the offender if he saw the gun. The offender stated he didn't see a gun but stated he was in the military and knows what a gun looks like. The offender was also very intoxicated.		GIBSON, S. E.
