Subject was not questioned at this time about the incident that had occurred. The suspect was then walked to the rear of the EPD transport wagon in which he used profane language to all officers on scene. Officers then began to search the subject prior to placing him in the back of the wagon for the arrest of battery causing SBI. Officers located a green cigarette pack in the suspects left front pocket. Officers removed the cigarette pack and located a small clear plastic baggy with a white powdered substance inside the cigarette container. Officers then placed all of the suspect's property in a bag and continued the investigation. Involved other, Joseph Curry, was initially identified as the "victim". Curry stated that he had no recollection of what occurred once he finally woke up from his trauma induced slumber. Curry was agitated and less than cooperative with officers. Curry refused any immediately medical attention. Officers then made contact with management of Chuckle's due to Curry being unable to remember the events possibly due to blunt force trauma to his head. Management was able to review the video. The video clearly showed Curry and Sutton standing outside of the gas station. Curry and Sutton appear to be conversing in a civilized manner. Curry then approaches Sutton and throws a punch at him. Sutton dodges the punch and strikes Curry one time in the left side of the face. Curry immediately falls to the ground unconscious. Sutton then walks away and does not touch Curry any more. Sutton remains in the area until officers arrival. The powdered substance that was found in Sutton's pocket was tested on scene. The substance tested positive for Methamphetamine. Sutton was transported to the VCCC for the possession of meth. Due to the video showing Curry clearly attempt to start the altercation Sutton was not charged for the battery. Evidence: Bag 1 Narcotics-White powdered substance F/T: + Meth F/W: 2 grams COC: K. | Vehicle -nibrs | 09/06/2020. Reported: 09/07/2020. Officers were dispatched to the above address for a theft report. I talked to the victim on the phone. The victim advised me that he got back home around at 2200, and discovered that his Kenwood stereo is missing out of his truck. Victim advised me that his truck has been broken into before, because of that the doors are not secure on it, and do not lock properly. The victim advised me that he bought the stereo about two years ago, and paid 270 dollars for it, and it is black in color. The victim advised me that truck was parked at the parking lot of the Moore Hall , but the area does not have video surveillance. I gave a case number to the victim. | | ELFREICH, C. A. |

The Evansville Fire Department administered Narcan and the subject regained consciousness. He was then treated by AMR. | | ELFREICH, C. A. |
| LW 2016376 | Carter, Rae Lynn (W F, 52) VICTIM of Burglary (C), at 1706 Glendale Ave, Evansville, IN, between 17:00, 09/07/2020 and 20:47, 09/07/2020. Reported: 09/08/2020. I was dispatched to the listed address in reference to a burglary report. On scene I spoke with the victim who stated when she came home this evening and entered her door she felt like something was wrong. She stated her dog failed to greet her at the door and could hear him in the bedroom. The victim entered the bedroom and found her dog caught behind the headboard of her bed. She stated he normally only goes there when he is scared and she stated he is scared of everyone except her. The victim stated she began to look around and noticed that $15.00 dollars had been taken from her bedroom. The victim stated she was not sure if the front door was unlocked because out of habit she stated she put her key in the lock and turned it. She stated there were no other signs of forced entry. The victim is not sure who may have entered her home but believes this is the second time someone has done this. The victim was given a case number and advised to call back if she found any other items missing. | | ELFREICH, C. A. |
