Reported: 09/21/2020. Officers were dispatched to 1165 Parrett St for a family dispute. The caller, later identified as Anita Luper, stated her ex-husband threw her chair in the air while she was sitting in it, and broke her phone. Anita stated her ex-husband's name was David Mullins. Officers Thomas and Miles arrived and located Anita sitting on the steps at a nearby church. Officer Klein and I located a male standing outside 1165 Parrett St, yelling at Officer Thomas. As Officer Thomas was attempting to speak with Mullins from the northside of the address, I approached from the south and attempted to make contact with Mullins. Mullins stated "I haven't done anything wrong", and started walking towards his vehicle that was parked on the street. I gave Mullins verbal commands to stop walking and talk to me, Mullins refused. Mullins then began reaching inside the back seat of his vehicle. I placed my hand on Mullins' left arm and gave him commands to stop reaching inside the vehicle and step away from the vehicle. Mullins ignored my commands and continued to reach inside is vehicle. I, again, placed my hand on Mullins' left arm and attempted to guide him away from the vehicle. Mullins then displayed pre-assault cues by removing his sunglasses from his head and stating "you'll have to fight me". Mullins turned toward me, tensed his upper body, and flexed his arms to prevent me from moving him away from the vehicle. I attempted to place a handcuff on Mullins' left wrist, while Officer Thomas controlled Mullins' right hand. As I was trying to bring Mullins' left arm behind his back, Mullins grabbed onto the frame of his vehicle to prevent officers from securing him in handcuffs. I gave Mullins another command to step away from the vehicle, Mullins refused. I attempted to pull Mullins away from the vehicle. Mullins then pulled away from me. Officer Miles attempted to control Mullins' lower body, while Officer Thomas and I attempted to control Mullins' upper body to escort him to the ground. Mullins grabbed a hold of my neck and torso with his left arm and fell on top of me. Mullins then applied pressure to my neck with his left forearm, making it difficult | TREMBCZYNSKI, |

| | to breathe. I attempted to pull Mullins' arm away from my neck, but Mullins tightened his arm. I then attempted to push Mullins' left bicep over my head in an effort to release the pressure from Mullins' left forearm on my neck, but Mullins continued to tighten his hold. | | |
| | Officer Klein gave Mullins commands to get on his stomach and place his hands behind his back, Mullins continued to resist. Officer Klein delivered a drive stun with his department issued Taser to Mullins, allowing me to escape Mullins' hold. Mullins was given another command to bring his arms behind his back, Mullins still refused. Mullins flexed his arms to prevent officers from securing him in handcuffs. Officer Klein delivered another drive stun to Mullins. Mullins was then secured in handcuffs. Mullins was placed into a seated position on the ground and given a chance to recover as he appeared exhausted. | | |
| | Mullins was read his Miranda Rights. Mullins was then asked about dispute between he and Anita. Mullins stated Anita was upset with him and started cussing at him. Mullins told officers Anita threw her phone at him and tipped her chair over before walking outside. Mullins stated he attempted to get Anita to come home, but she refused. Mullins stated officers arrived shortly after. | | |
| | When asked about why he kept reaching inside his vehicle, Mullins stated he was "getting a car seat out". Mullins then stated he "did nothing wrong", and he was "defending himself" when officers attempted to speak with him. Mullins told officers he was still in a relationship with Anita, saying she was his girlfriend. | | |
| | Officers later located a screwdriver in the immediate area where Mullins was reaching inside his vehicle. | | |
| | I then went to speak with Anita. Anita stated she and Mullins have been living together for 20 years. They were married for several years, and were divorced approximately 10 years ago. Anita stated she and Mullins continued to live together even after their divorce. Anita stated today's dispute was over Mullins wanting some of her prescribed narcotics. Anita stated Mullins became upset when she did not give him the pills. Anita stated Mullins then came up to the chair she was sitting in and tilted it backward. Anita then stated Mullins then tipped the chair completely over on her. Anita told officers she grabbed her cellphone when Mullins said "if you send me to jail, I'm gonna fix you". Anita stated she believed that Mullins meant to do her physical harm once he is released, and she is "terrified of what he might do". Anita told officers of a previous domestic violence incidents where Mullins had threatened to kill her. Anita then told officers Mullins grabbed her hands and attempted to wrestle the phone from her to prevent her from calling 911. | | |
| | According to Officer Thomas, a witness, later identified as Travis Swayze, stated he had just arrived in the area when he saw Anita sitting outside crying. According to Officer Thomas, Swayze saw Mullins standing in front of Anita and heard Anita yelling "leave me alone, get away from me!" | | |
| | Anita did not have any visible reportable signs of injury and declined medical treatment. Anita was given a copy of this report number and informed about the process of obtaining a protective order. | | |
