	On Monday, September 28, 2020 at approximately 1611 hundred hours Officer Gibson, Officer Taylor and I, Officer Brauser were dispatched to 717 Cherry Street Apartment 704 in reference to a family dispute. The caller (Iris D. Irvine) advised her mother (Stella Hibbler) was baby sitting her 3 children at her apartment. At approximately 1611 hundred hours Iris received a call from her mother in reference to her 14 year old son who was currently out of control. Stella advised that the 14 year old had assaulted his autistic brother. When we arrived on scene Stella stated that she was trying to clean up the apartment after her 14 year old grandson had destroyed the place. She further explained that he hit his brother and sister and threatened to throw his brother out of a window. After speaking with the grandmother I made contact with the 14 year old male. He advised he was upset over his mother taking his phone from him earlier in the day. When asked if he had stuck his brother and sister he stated he never touched them.
	Once Irvine showed up on scene (approximately 10 minuets after our arrival) she was very upset with her son and began to explain to him that she would be taking him for the night. While trying to speak with her son he began to ignore and mock her which upset her to the point that she walked over to her son and kicked him in the right leg with her right foot, she also began to hit him several times with a closed fist. Officer Gibson and, I had to pull Irvine off of her son as she continued to hit him. Once the two were separated they were both placed in handcuffs. I was unable to locate any injuries on either of them; but the 14 year old was very upset and began to cry. Stella advised that she was willing to watch her grandson in order to allow her daughter to calm down. Iris was advised that charge would be filed. She was provided with a case number. The incident was recorded by my body worn camera.

	Officers were dispatched to a domestic violence report. The victim stated that she was in a romantic relationship with the offender. The victim usually stays with the offender when she is in Evansville to visit. However, the victim and the offender have been separated for the past week due to the offender hitting the victim prior to this incident. The victim said she only had contact with the offender when she dropped off their child, that is in common, for the offender to spend time with.
	Some time after the victim dropped off the child, the offender said to come get the child. The offender accused the victim of not wanting the child. According to the victim, the offender was mad that the victim took "too long" to arrive to pick up the child. So the offender grabbed the victim by the hair and drug the victim around the house while hitting the victim. The victim said the offender picked up the victim several times and threw the victim to the ground before the victim was able to run away.
