LW 2016382 Controlled Substance-Possession Marijuana/hash Oil/hashish/	Society VICTIM of Controlled Substance- Possession Marijuana/hash Oil/hashish/ (C), at 3706 Broadway Ave, Evansville, IN, between 01:50, 09/08/2020 and 01:53, 09/08/2020. Reported: 09/08/2020. I was dispatched to the listed address in reference to a possible overdose. The reporter stated she returned to the address a found her two friends unresponsive on the floor. The female contacted 911 and was given instructions on CPR. When Fire and AMR arrived the two subjects were revived by the use of Narcan. While inside the address and in the kitchen I observed a clear baggy containing a green leafy substance that was sitting on the table. Through my training and experience I knew this substance was marijuana. The substance was collected and did later test positive for the presence of THC's and had a field weight of 8.3 grams. The homeowner, who was one of the subjects revived by the Narcan, admitted to smoking marijuana prior to our arrival but stated the baggy of marijuana was not his. The subject was advised that because the residence was his, he was responsible for what was inside. He was given a citation and court date for 11/13/2020.		ELFREICH, C. A.

Collins stated when she arrived home this evening around 1930 hours, the suspect, later identified as T. Lockyear, was inside the house. Collins told me that Lockyear is her boyfriend and had been living here with her. Collins also advised that she had a Protective Order against Lockyear. When asked where Lockyear was staying now, she told me his address was "here".		CONDIFF, M. V.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
	Collins continued that at approximately 0100 hours, she was in her bedroom when Lockyear tried to force his way inside. Collins stated she reached her medic alert device and was able to be connected to 9-1-1. Collins stated when Lockyear heard she was talking to 9-1-1, he grabbed her purse off the bed and fled out the front of the house. Collins stated her purse contained approximately $800.00 in cash, her driver license, and various other items. I gave Collins a case # and told her the process for following up with the prosecutor's office. I checked for the protective order through NCIC and received a hit that showed Collins did have a PO against Lockyear. However, when I contacted records to verify that the order had been served, records advised that the PO had been dropped according to the court record. We were able to determine that the NCIC hit was due to the cause # being entered incorrectly and therefore not removed.
