Reported: 09/19/2020. On today's date, officers were dispatched to 1125 MacArthur Circle for a report of disorderly conduct. The reporting party told dispatch that three black males had been drinking alcohol and were now arguing and fighting. When Officer Klein and myself arrived, a male subject, later identified as Binder, was located sitting in the driver's seat of a white van parked on the street in front of 1125 MacArthur Circle. The vehicle was not running. I also observed a male passenger, later identified as Lipson, and an unidentified black female in the back seat. I approached the van and attempted to speak with Binder. I immediately observed the odor consistent with that of an alcoholic beverage emanating from Binder's person. Officer Klein asked Binder if he had been drinking today, he stated "no". Binder then stated he was about to leave. As I was speaking with Binder, Binder immediately exited the vehicle and started walking away. I gave Binder multiple commands to stop, to which he refused. Binder continued to walk away toward the porch of 1125 MacArthur Circle. I placed my hand on Binder's right shoulder and he immediately pulled away, continuing to walk towards the house. Binder then sat on the porch of 1125 MacArthur Circle. Because Binder was noncompliant, I attempted to detain Binder. I placed myself behind Binder and gave him commands to bring his hands behind his back. Binder tensed his body and flexed his arms to prevent me from placing him in handcuffs. Binder was given several more commands to place his hands behind his back, to which he refused and continued to flex his arms. I then placed a handcuff on Binder's right wrist and pulled his arm behind his back, while maintaining control of his left arm. Binder was instructed once more to bring his other arm behind his back, he refused. Force was used to place Binder into handcuffs. Binder was	TREMBCZYNSKI,

Binder became disorderly during this time by yelling very loudly. After Binder was secured in handcuffs, I attempted to speak with him once more. Binder became verbally abusive toward officers and asked why he was handcuffed. I explained to Binder that he refused to follow a lawful order to stop, and that he was also being disorderly. A number of neighbors had stepped outside their homes due to the commotion from Binder. Officer Klein told Binder to stop yelling, Binder continued to yell very loudly. Binder admitted he was resisting, but believed we had no right to speak with him. I asked Binder to tell me his name, he refused. After asking multiple times, Binder finally said his name was "Tony". Binder told officers he would not provide any further information. Binder then stated he was upset about a family photo that was stolen 30 years ago. Officers attempted to explain to Binder the possible avenues of getting his photo back, but Binder continued to be belligerent. The other passenger from the van, Lipson, attempted to calm Binder down but was unsuccessful. Binder then attempted to stand up, and was immediately placed back into a seated position. I then attempted to escort Binder to the transport wagon. Binder initially refused to walk to the wagon until his face mask was on. Officers complied with Binder's request for his face mask, and Binder began walking to the wagon. Binder then began to be verbally abusive to officers and was threatening to "turn up". Binder continued to be disorderly as he was assisted into the wagon and transported to the VCCC. While en route to the VCCC, Officer Klein and myself were flagged down by a neighbor. The neighbor stated that this is an ongoing issue at this address. The neighbor stated she called 911 about the same group of males the previous night due to them arguing and being disorderly. While at the VCCC, Binder refused to let officers assist him out of the transport wagon. I escorted him down to prevent him from injuring himself. Binder began screaming "don't touch me" and also said "I'm sorry for whatever happens to your family in three or four months". Once inside the VCCC, Binder refused to let officers place a jail issued face mask on him and threatened to fight officers once more. Binder was placed into a restraint chair. Binder continued screaming profanities and racial slurs toward officers throughout the booking process.	BEAVER, A. B.
