The victim stated that she had just arrived home from Indianapolis and noticed that her vehicle was missing from the property. The victim stated that her husband would have more information about when and how the vehicle was taken. Her husband stated that on Sunday, October 11, 2020 he was asleep in the master bedroom, at approximately 1000 hundred hours he was woke up by his niece who has been staying at the residence for approximately 2 months. His niece asked him if he would be willing to let her father drive the vehicle so she could pick up a friend on Boeke Ave. The uncle did not want any issues out of his niece so he agreed for them to take the car. After giving permission he fell back asleep. At approximately 1400 hundred hours the uncle asked his brother in law who also stays at the residence if he took his daughter to pick up her friend. The brother in law stated that he never left in the vehicle and never took his daughter to go get her friend. The brother in law also advised that the vehicle was missing from the property and that he was unaware of who took the vehicle. The brother in law stated that at approximately 1400 hundred hours he discovered that his daughter had left the residence; but he did not see her leave. The time frame that she could have left the residence was from 1000 hundred hours to 1400 hundred hours. At this time nobody has been able to make contact with the niece. Her aunt stated that she could possibly be headed to Louisville, Kentucky. Officers had Evansville Police Records enter the vehicle as stolen into NCIC. | GORMAN, S. A. |
