L.
		Officers were working off duty, at the address listed, when two related incidents occurred involving multiple suspected offenders. A vehicle listed was driven by the IO and transported two of the suspected offenders to the scene.
		A juvenile female/offender entered the bank with a W/M offender. The W/M, realizing an Officer was working off duty, quickly exited the bank and fled the area. The juvenile female had, in her possession, a stolen check, verified by authorities in the corporate office of the financial institution. The juvenile had signed her name on the back of the check and attempted to cash the check. The check amount totaled $1700. The juvenile stated to Officers that the W/M had filled out the front of the check and asked her to cash it for him. She then stated the check was "payment" to help her pay for a vehicle. The check was seized by the bank manager and the juvenile was asked to not return, to any related financial institution locations, by management.
		As Officers were attempting to gain information on the listed vehicle, the driver/ IO, of the vehicle circled back around and entered to confront Officers working. Officers explained to the IO, who is also the juveniles mother, the fraudulent actions of her daughter. The IO began to explain an elaborate story as to why she was involved and why she did not know what her daughter`s activities were. The IO also admitted to knowing the W/M offender and began to tell an exact location of his whereabouts. She quickly caught herself and changed the subject back to her daughters actions.
		The juvenile female then re-entered the building to confront Officers. Officers again explained to the juvenile how her actions were criminal and could result in consequences.
		About an hour later an unknown vehicle entered the drive through and attempted to pass another stolen, check matching the one seized by the bank earlier. At this time a B/M / offender was in the driver seat of the vehicle. The teller returned to the Officers spoke with the VI who stated she had recently filed for divorce and separated from the OF. Officers established the accusations, by the OF, via text messages and photo text messages, were false. Officers were granted permission to read the messages and in them the OF stated he had left the kids in the rain at her address.

Officers then made contact, via phone call, with the OF. The OF stated to Officers that the messages of neglect on the children were actually false and were used in an attempt to force the VI to contact him.

According to the VI, the OF had been constantly attempting to contact the her continuously throughout the day. The VI stated that she and the OF have 50/50 custody of their children during this time of separation. The VI stated that tonight was to be the OF's night to have both of the children.

Officers also established that the VI was simultaneously receiving messages from the OF, via the 12 year old's phone. The VI stated to Officers that she was fearful of this incident escalating due to prior unreported incidents of physical violence in the home.

The VI also stated that when she moved out of the OF residence her firearm had gone missing. A report was filed with PCSO, due to the location of that incident. The VI also stated that the OF had previously made suicidal threats to the VI.

Officers then made contact with PCSO, at the VI's request, to do a check welfare on the children involved. PCS Deputies made contact with both children and the OF, at his listed address in Poseyville. The children showed no signs of injury or immediate danger, but were hesitant to answer any of the Deputies questions.

Officers advised the VI to seek legal advice as to custody agreements and also to seek a PO, RO, or No Contact Order, through her newly appointed divorce lawyer. The VI was provided a case number along with the process to follow up pursuing charges.

Officers were dispatched to 3301-6 Washington Ave in reference to domestic violence in progress. Officers arrived and spoke with the victim, who stated that her brother had stolen $20 out of her dresser and damaged a window screen on the apartment. The offender was no longer on scene. The victim was given a case number.

Officers were dispatched to a theft in progress at Wal-Mart East. Loss prevention officers apprehended two suspects that had concealed merchandise and attempted to exit the store without making payment.
