Reported: 10/21/2020. On the listed date, Officer Hastings and I were dispatched to Stanton Optical in reference to an intimidation report. The victim, Amanda O. stated a white male wearing a black bandana, a skull mask with a slit in the center, and a black jacket around his waist, came in when the business opened and demanded contacts. The victim advised the subject that he would need a prescription from the doctor first. The victim stated the male became irate and left. The victim stated the male came back around 13:10 and once again demanded contacts. When the victim said no, the male pulled out a crumpled note from his pants pocket that read "I will f shoot you." The victim again said no and the male dropped his left hand down to his side near his pocket as if he was reaching for a weapon. But, he never showed one. The victim stated she was in fear for her life during the incident. The male began throwing his arms around and was screaming then left the store on a red bike last seen possibly heading westbound on Morgan Ave. The victim was provided with the case number for documentation and to submit video footage   |   | MILES, C.
