The driver stated he did not have his registration because he just cleaned out his vehicle. The driver began checking his pants pockets and immediate area, but could not locate his wallet. The officer asked the driver to step out of the vehicle, in which he did. Officers asked consent to search the driver`s person, in which he gave consent. Another officer arrived on scene and the driver waited with the other officer on the front of a marked police vehicle, as one officer ran the VIN on the vehicle for stolen. Officers ran the VIN on the vehicle and confirmed the driver was the registered owner and the vehicle was not stolen. Officers then asked consent to search the vehicle, in which the driver gave consent. During the search of the vehicle, officers located a small clear sandwich baggy with a glass pipe, rolling paper, and a previously smoked joint that contained a brown and green leafy substance. Officers also found a grey toilet paper roll holder with a syringe taped inside. These items were stored in the back folding arm rest of the vehicle. Officers continued their search of the vehicle and later located a sunglass container that contained a glass pipe with burnt residue, a spoon with a used cotton ball, a clear baggy with other used cotton balls and a crystal like substance. These items were located in a backpack in the front passenger seat of the vehicle. Officers placed the driver in handcuffs and read him Miranda. The driver stated he understood his rights. Officers asked the male about the contents found in the vehicle. The male knew there was a "joint" in the vehicle, but stated the rest of the stuff in the vehicle possibly belonged to his girlfriend, who has an addiction problem. Officers towed the driver`s vehicle and the driver was transported to VCCC. The joint containing .4 grams of a brown and green leafy substance tested positive using NARK II 05 for marijuana. The .9 grams (weighted in clear baggy with cotton balls) of crystal like substance tested positive for methamphetamine using NARK II 15 for methamphetamine. The male was booked on multiple drug charges at VCCC.		DEEG, D.
