	adjacent to his bedroom, when he heard a loud sound. Plogher stated he only heard one loud sound, at approximately 1630. Plogher did not find the bullet hole until 1730. Plogher stated no one else was home with him at the time. The bullet appeared to enter Plogher`s third floor apartment, striking his bedside table, and coming to rest inside his bed frame. Crime Scene was called to photograph the damage. While waiting for Crime Scene, I attempted to locate any shell casings in the parking lot. I located what appeared to be a bullet hole at 3131-1008 Tamarack Ct. The round appeared to have originated in this apartment, exiting through the bottom metal frame of a sliding door, and striking Plogher`s apartment. Property manager`s Kelsea Claspell and Jason Chambliss both stated they were in the area and heard a single gunshot. Neither Claspell nor Chambliss saw or heard anyone in the area at the time. Both Claspell and Chambliss were able to provide me with the name of the tenant in 3131-1008 Tamarack Ct. The tenant was said to be Vaught. Officers attempted to make contact with Vaught by knocking, no one responded. Another property manager, Natalie Foley, provided officers with key to the apartment to conduct a welfare check. No one was located inside the apartment. AIU detectives arrived and spoke with Vaught via cellphone. According to Det. McCormick, Vaught has been out of town since Thursday on military leave. According to Vaught, a friend named Couchman, had been staying in the apartment. Det. McCormick contacted Couchman via cell phone. According to Det. McCormick, Couchman stated the shot was a result of an accidental discharge while moving the weapon. Crime Scene photographed both scenes and AIU took over further investigation. Plogher was given a copy of the report number.

	any insurance on the vehicle, because he lost his job. During our conversation with the offender, I was able to smell strong odor of marijuana coming out of the vehicle. Once the assisting officer arrived on scene, I asked the offender out of the vehicle and detained him, and advised him of what was going on. The offender advised me that he had his friends in the car, and sometimes his vehicle does smell like weed. I placed the offender in the handcuffs, and proceeded with the vehicle search. During my vehicle search, I found a green leafy substance wrapped in clear plastic wrap, tucked in the between of driver`s seat and the center console. I read Miranda warning to the offender and asked him if the green leafy substance was his or not. The offender advised me that he did not have any clue about the green leafy substance, and that it was not his, and again advised us that he had his friends in the vehicle earlier that day. The offender was cited, and released on scene. I advised the offender to not drive his vehicle, due to him not having an active insurance.
