LW 2020515 Possession Of Stolen Property	RESTRICTED VICTIM of Possession Of Stolen Property (C), at 5100 Broadway Ave, Evansville, IN, on 11/12/2020, 09:04. Reported: 11/12/2020. I was on routine patrol in the area of Deshields Drive and Broadway when I pulled out behind a Chevrolet Cobalt traveling Eastbound on Broadway Avenue. I noticed that the Cobalt had a truck plate mounted on the rear of the vehicle and immediately suspected it to be a false plate. Before I could run the plate, the driver abruptly turned onto Speaker road and into the driveway of 5100 Broadway Avenue. I followed the vehicle and passed the driveway. I noticed that the driver		HASSLER, N. L.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 2020522 Theft	was not getting out of the vehicle. I turned around up the street and passed the vehicle again in the driveway. The driver was still in the vehicle. It was my belief at that time that the driver of the vehicle did not live there and was trying to avoid me. I then pulled into the back of the parking lot of the church across the street from the address out of the driver's view. A short time later, the driver backed out of the driveway until he saw me, then pulled forward again and turned the vehicle around in the driveway. This time I was sure that the driver was trying to avoid me and had reason to believe, given the totality of the circumstances, that crime was afoot. I then pulled into the driveway and confronted the driver. The driver admitted to me that the plate did not belong on the vehicle and that it had been given to him. The driver admitted that he was trying to avoid me and did not live at the address. Further, the driver stated that he did not have insurance on the vehicle and that there was marijuana in the front passenger seat of the vehicle. The driver advised me that he was unsure if his driver's license was valid. I then called for another car to assist me. I retrieved the plate number from the rear of the vehicle and relayed the information to dispatch. Dispatch then advised me that the plate was reported stolen. The plate had also expired on 11/07/2020. Officer Proctor arrived a short time later and I began to search the vehicle. I located a white grocery sack that contained bag labeled "Royal Kratom" that contained five pills in the front passenger seat along with an orange prescription bottle bearing the driver's name that contained the green leafy substance that I immediately recognized through my training and experience to be marijuana. Also in the sack was a metal pipe with burnt residue (indicating use) that is commonly used in the ingestion of marijuana. In the glove compartment, I located an open title for the vehicle that had been signed by the seller but not the buyer. The date of sale was also not noted. The driver was arrested on the listed charges. The vehicle was impounded. See affidavit for further information.	Sinclair, Peter (W M, 29) VICTIM of Theft (C), at 2120 Monroe Ave, Evansville, IN, on 11/12/2020, 04:50. Reported: 11/12/2020.	SAVAGE, J. L.

Reported: 11/12/2020. Officers were dispatched in reference to found property. When officers arrived on scene, caller, Sandra Chase, stated there was an unknown vehicle in her garage that she believed might have been stolen by the contractor, Matthew Reynolds, who she recently hired. Chase states that she lives in the house on the property and had been doing so since her partner, William Bishop, died in March 2020. She states she is the representative for William's estate. Chase stated she hired Reynolds to do some work around her residence and garage so she gave him a key to get in and out of the garage. Chase stated she was having some issues with Reynolds lately and she had him return her key. Chase believes that Reynolds still has a key to the garage. Chase stated she had not been inside her garage in roughly a month, but when she opened it today, she found an unknown vehicle located inside and $1000.00 worth of lumber was missing. The vehicle was verified not stolen and belongs to Reynolds. Chase stated she wanted the vehicle removed from her property. Chase stated she believes Reynolds broke into her garage and stole the lumber. Chase stated she had filed a fraud report earlier this morning when her bank called her explaining Reynolds had stolen a check from her and tried to cash it. A separate report was taken for the fraud by officers this morning. Chase was advised she could have the vehicle towed from her private property by calling a tow company. Chase was provided a case number for the burglary. When officers arrived on scene, there were multiple locks visible on the garage vehicle door. Chase stated that these had all been forced open by someone. Officers did not observe any signs of forced entry besides a damaged piece of wood on the siding of the garage. The locks did not appear to be forced open.		MILES, C. J.

Family Offense- Neglect Of Dependant/child Violations	Officers were dispatched in reference to an overdose. When officers arrived, EFD and AMR were on scene reviving a male, later identified as David Hajek. Another male on scene, later identified as Timothy Cantu, stated he came to this apartment to visit his friend Lindsay Stokes. Cantu stated when he arrived, Stokes came running out of the apartment building screaming. Cantu stated he asked Stokes what was going on and she led him inside her apartment where he saw an unknown white male, Hajek, unconscious on the couch. Cantu stated he gave Stokes his phone so she could call 911 and after she spoke with dispatchers, she asked Cantu to stay at the apartment and she left with her infant son. Cantu stated he had no idea who the male was and he did not know where Stokes went with the child. Stokes and the child were not on scene when officers arrived.
	Officers found a marriage certificate laying in plain view on the kitchen table with Stokes' and Hajek's names on it.
	When officers arrived, a kids TV show was playing on the TV and there were kids toys all over the living room. Once EFD and AMR revived Hajek, he was able to identify himself and stated he was clean for four months and happened to have found some heroin or fentanyl tonight and admitted to using it. Hajek was unsure where Stokes went with their son and he was not able to say if Stokes had used any narcotics. Hajek stated that both Stokes and his son were gone when he overdosed and did not witness the overdose. Hajek was transported to Deaconess Midtown for medical treatment.
