LW 2021348	Confinement	Wagganer, Melissa Anne (W F, 43) VICTIM of Confinement (C), at 8302 Beechwood Ct, Evansville, IN, between 06:00, 11/26/2020 and 07:34, 11/26/2020. Reported: 11/26/2020. I was dispatched to 3021 Cross Pointe Blvd reference a bloody battered female requesting help that her boyfriend had just beat her up. Upon arrival observed a bloody female with a large bump on her forehead, waiting out in front of the front door of Casey's with an employee of the store. The victim was barefooted wearing black pants that were water soaked and a tank top. She had blood all over her face with a very large bump on her forehead. The victim stated that her boyfriend, Destin Sveska had assaulted her inside her stolen vehicle at the intersection of Morgan and Cross Pointe Blvd. She continued stating that he attempted to confine her to the vehicle by pulling her hair as she attempted to exit the vehicle at the traffic light. She stated that there was a semi automatic handgun in plain view laying in the console and he was yelling at her that he was going to "blow her face off and kill her!" She stated that she had filed an auto theft report on this vehicle that she had purchased on 11-20-2020 from Expressway Dodge on Division. Dispatch or Records showed no report had been generated by her on that date due to an unknown VIN. I later discovered that today's event began at approx. 0600 hours at her residence located at 8302 Beachwood Court on today's date. The suspect had arrived at her residence ringing the door bell and yelling at the victim through the window that he wanted to talk. The victim eventually opened the door and the suspect pushed his way into the residence through the victim and confronted a male inside named Craig LNU. The suspect in the presence of the victims three children began yelling and screaming at the victim that she had ruined his life by filing auto theft charges against him. The suspect then became violent throwing things and head butting the victim. The suspect then fled the	CARLILE, S. E.

LW 2021349	residence and shortly thereafter called the victim requesting that she meet him to get her vehicle back. The victim then gathered all three children and her female friend (name unknown by victim) and drove to Thortons located at Morgan/Burkhardt where the meeting was to take place. As she drove by did not see the suspect so continued southbound on Burkhardt from Morgan. Then she noticed the suspect driving her 2015 Light Blue Dodge Charger driving next to her with the suspect yelling for her to pull over. The victim turned right onto Oak Grove and into a gravel parking lot where he convinced the victim to get into his vehicle to go to his mothers house so she could witness the exchange. The suspect then drove off with the victim inside and this is when the victim first saw the handgun in the console. As the suspect drove away, he laughed and told the victim that he wasn't going to his mothers, but was going to kill her. As they approached the intersection of Morgan and Cross Pointe Blvd the suspect struck her in the face with his elbow and continued striking her in the face and head. The victim attempted to exit the vehicle as he turned eastbound onto Morgan grabbing her hair and pulling her back into the vehicle. She managed to slip out of her jacket and exit the vehicle running down a ditch southbound onto the railroad tracks. She was yelling for help when the suspect exited the vehicle as though he was going to pursue her, so she crossed a ditch full of water estimated to be 3 feet deep by the victim and ran over to the Caseys Gas Station for help. The suspect drove away throwing her phone out the passenger window of the vehicle possibly into the water. A Caseys employee, Bonnie Harvey, came to her assistance calling 911 for help. The phone or shoes of the victim have yet to be located. AMR arrived on scene and transported the victim to Deaconess Gateway for examination. Det. Hamner took photographs of the victim prior to being transported and Det. M.Bow also spoke with her on scene. The children and her unidentified friend were unable to be located at this time. I later was notified by records that the Auto Theft report requested by the victim initially on 11-21-20 was completed. The victim had very little information on the vehicle in that her purchase papers were still in the glovebox of the purchased vehicle. Records was notified of this report. Sgt Taylor later advised me that the children were located and released to the paternal father. Cross reference this case with 20-21131.
