Intoxicated	property damage. Upon arrival, officers located both vehicles and completed an accident report. While officers were on scene they could smell the odor of alcoholic beverage coming from the breath of one of the involved drivers. Officers also observed that the driver was having a hard time keeping his balance at certain points. Officers asked the driver if he would be willing to do SFSTs and he advised that he would. The driver did SFSTs and failed. The driver then was placed in handcuffs and was read his Miranda Rights along with Implied Consent. The driver submitted to a chemical test and was transported to Deaconess Midtown for a blood draw. The driver was eventually transported to VCCC and booked in with the listed charges without incident.
