LW 2020903	sitting inside of a car on the street alone. The car was not running and the drivers door was standing wide open. Officers went inside the home to help render aid to the male who was overdosing. Another Officer located the mother of the young children inside the home and went outside with her. The female appeared to be under the influence of narcotics as well. Her pupils were dilated she was acting erratic and could not focus on the officers or her children. While speaking to the female she denied consent to check her purse. Officers then told her not to reach inside the purse while we were on scene with her since we did not know if it contained any weapons. The offender reached into her purse several times after being told each time to not reach into the purse. After several times of reaching into her purse Officers had her sit down on the sidewalk and Officers opened the purse to make sure it did not contain a weapon. The Officer immediately saw the stem of a glass pipe commonly used to ingest narcotics. The stem was dirty and had residue inside of it. At that time officers placed the female in handcuffs. The rest of the purse was searched and a syringe containing a liquid was located in the same pouch of the purse that the pipe was located in. The offender stated that the syringe was loaded with liquid methamphetamine. The female also stated that she had used meth at her house with her youngest child present in the home. The female then drove the children to this location in the car we found them inside of. The female`s car has never been registered and she has a suspended-prior drivers status. She also does not have insurance for the vehicle. The decision was made to tow the vehicle. Inside the vehicle on the center console was another bag the children had been sitting within arms reach of. Inside that bag Officers located a crystal substance that field tested positive for methamphetamine. Also in the bag officers located three pills in a clear plastic bag. These were identified as 2mg Alprazolam. The offender does not have a valid prescription for these pills. The offender was arrested and taken to VCCC. The children were released to their grandmother that they live with.		VANCLEAVE, N.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
Assault	On 11-18-20 Officers were dispatched to a domestic in progress. Once on scene, officers spoke with the victim who stated that her son, Matthew Lawrence, shoved her down causing pain and redness to both of the palms of her hands. The victim stated that she got into an argument with Matthew over how he is living at her house and not helping with the bills. Matthew then told her that he had residency since he had been staying there for the past few weeks. He then told the victim that she would have to evict him and started laughing at her. She asked him to leave and he pushed her to the ground in the back hallway of the house. This caused pain and carpet burn on the palms of both hands. She then said that she was going to call the police and attempted to stand back up. Matthew then pushed her back onto the ground and told her, "Go ahead and call them." The offender had fled the scene before officers arrived. Pictures were documented with the officers body worn camera and a case number was given to her to reference a DV battery report.

Around the same time, an unknown colored SUV hatchback left the scene. Officer Aker and I arrived on scene and met with the victim #1. Victim #1 advised that a subject wearing an "old man" Halloween-style mask and a black cloak had attempted to enter the back door of his residence. Victim #1 advised that he retrieved his gun and warned to shoot the subject while he was attempting to break in. After the warning was given, the subject shook his head as if he was non-verbally saying "no" and then walked off. Shortly after the subject walked off, Victim #1 said he observed a silver or white SUV (possibly a Honda or Mazda hatchback) driving north-bound on Southfield Road until out of sight. Victim #2 believed the vehicle was an SUV. She also confirmed that it traveled north-bound on Southfield at a low rate of speed. Neither victim could provide any additional information on the suspect. Victim #1 was given a case number for his reference.		EAGLESON, R. C.

Invasion Of Privacy	listed. On 11/18/2020, at approximately 1911 hundred hours, officers were dispatched to the listed address for a prowler. Upon arrival I met with the victim. The victim was very upset and scared. The victim told me that her husband, who she has a protective order against, just showed up to her apartment. The victim stated that she walked out into the hallway to check her mail and when she returned, her husband was sitting in a chair inside of her apartment. The victim then left the apartment and asked a neighbor to call the police. When she went back into her apartment her husband was no longer there. The victim told me that he was using a key fob nearby to turn lights on in her car. When I arrived on scene I observed that the lights to her car were on. I searched the area for the husband and could not locate him. The victim was given a case number.

No victims listed. Officers were dispatched to a harassment in progress. Upon arrival, officers spoke to the reporter. The reporter stated she received a protective order (PO) against her ex-boyfriend on Monday, November 16, 2020. Tonight (11/18/2020), her ex-boyfriend came over to her residence and began knocking on her back door (faces the north). The reporter became in fear for her life. The reporter`s ex-boyfriend never said anything to the reporter as he knocked on the door. The reporter informed her ex that she had a protective order against him and she would call the police, but he continued to knock without ever saying anything. The reporter stated it was weird because the last time he did this, he said her name. This time, it seemed as if he had no intent of actually making contact with her, but just wanted her to know he was there. The reporter stated her ex-boyfriend was wearing a hoody (unknown color) and a blue jean jacket. Officers checked the area and were unable to locate him at this time. At the time of this report, it is unknown if the protective order has been served to the reporter`s ex-boyfriend. The reporter was given a case number and informed to call if he comes back.		FAHSE, A.
