LW 2021294 Domestic Battery-adult Knowing Presence Of Child Less Than 1	RESTRICTED VICTIM of Domestic Battery-adult Knowing Presence Of Child Less Than 1 (C), at 1030 W Franklin St, Evansville, IN, between 12:00, 11/25/2020 and 12:10, 11/25/2020. Reported: 11/25/2020.		THIRY, K. D.
	On 11/25/2020, at approximately 12:08 hours, the Evansville Police Department (EPD) was requested at 1030-217 W Franklin Street in reference to a domestic violence in progress. The caller reported a male put his hands on his wife. The caller provided the name of the male suspect and advised he was leaving the complex in a red pickup truck. Officers arrived on scene and met with a female, identified as the victim. She reported her husband, identified as the offender, left prior to officers` arrival on scene. Officers observed a red mark on the left side of the victim`s face and ear. She also had a small abrasion on the right side of her forehead and reported she had a small scratch on her neck from an incident the day before. She reported she and her husband, the offender, had an argument in the above mentioned apartment, which escalated into a physical confrontation. She stated the offender slapped her on the left side of her face and left the apartment in their red Ford pickup truck. During the investigation, officers learned three (3) children, identified as involved others, were inside of the residence, all less than 16 years of age. The victim`s sister, identified as a witness, was also present inside of the apartment. Officers took photographs of the victim`s injuries with their assigned body camera. Officers conducted a standby while the victim was able to confirm she had another residence she could visit. The offender did not have a key to the apartment nor an access fob into the building. The victim did not wish to pursue charges against her husband. However, given the nature of the incident in the presence of children and the victim`s observable injuries, a report was submitted to the EPD Domestic Violence Investigations Unit for follow-up. The victim was advised to seek a protective order at the very least and to contact additional named resources for assistance. The offender was not located at time of this report and no arrests were made.

Reported: 11/25/2020. An officer was dispatched to 4624 N First Ave in reference to a hit and run accident. Upon making contact with the victim, the victim stated the suspect hit her vehicle in the parking lot. The victim stated she was sitting in her vehicle during the swinging of the suspects front door. The victim stated she tried to hold the suspects front door to keep her vehicle from being hit. The victim stated the suspect walked inside the store as she contacted police. The victim stated the suspect walked back out and the victim told the suspect that police was on the way for the accident. The suspect ignored the victims statement and fled the scene. The victim stated her vehicle received damage on the passenger back fender and the suspects damage will be on the drivers front door. The victim stated the suspect was an older white female driving a white Saturn ION.		WARD, J. D.
LW 2021297 Incident Report - Humane Officer	Incident Report - Humane Officer (C), at 209 Tulip Ave, Evansville, IN, between 13:15, 11/24/2020 and 13:22, 11/24/2020. Reported: 11/25/2020. No victims listed. On 11/24/2020, at approximately 13:16 hours, the Evansville Police Department (EPD) was requested at 209 Tulip Avenue in reference to an animal being shot. The caller reportedly shot a dog that had come onto his property and attacked his dog. Officers arrived on scene and located all involved individuals, along with the injured animal. Animal Control Officers arrived on scene prior to EPD Officers. The injured dog was a large black Labrador mix and was wrapped in blanket at time of officers` arrival on scene. The dog was still alive and was quickly placed into the back of a pickup truck by the owners and transported to a veterinary emergency clinic. The male who shot the dog, identified as an involved other, was quickly located and still had the firearm on his person. He was disarmed for officer safety and the handgun was placed inside of his residence. He had reportedly taken his small breed dog outside of his residence to use the restroom and an un-tethered large breed black Labrador belonging to a neighbor ran toward them, onto his property, in an aggressive manner. He attempted to pull his dog back, but the neighbor`s dog attacked his smaller dog and reportedly had his dog in its mouth. He reportedly shot the aggressive dog, firing several rounds because they appeared to have little to no effect initially. After he shot the neighboring dog and secured his dog in the residence, he called 9-1-1. He appeared shaken and was upset he had to shoot the neighbor`s dog. Prior to transporting the injured dog, an officer overheard the injured dog`s owner, identified as an involved other, comforting a younger male, later learned to be her son, and telling him something along the lines, "It`s okay, he went onto the neighbor`s property." The younger male was understandably upset and replied, "It`s not okay." Moments later, the injured dog was loaded onto the back of the pickup truck and transported to the animal clinic.		THIRY, K. D.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 2021300	The smaller dog was checked by Animal Control for injuries and it appeared no injuries broke through the skin. Animal Control Officers reported the incident appeared justified from their investigation and noted there did not appear to be any dispute amongst the neighbors about what occurred. They arrived shortly before law enforcement and were able to speak with both parties. Officers followed-up with the injured dog`s owner and learned the dog had to be euthanized due to the injuries. Given the totality of the circumstances, the observations and overheard conversations with little dispute amongst the neighbors about the dog going onto the neighbor`s property, the incident mostly appeared as it was reported. Although there is not believed to be any criminal conduct at time of this report, a general incident report will be submitted to the EPD Humane Officer Program for follow-up if necessary and for documentation purposes. No citations were issued and no arrests were made at time of this report.		CASSIDY, T. A.
