Reported: 11/07/2020. Officer`s were dispatched to 1118 W Oregon St. reference a residential burglary in progress. Upon arrival, officers met with the victim, Sandra Robb, and a witness, Pierre Johnson. Robb and Pierre stated they were at home, in their bedroom, when Robb`s boyfriend, the offender, forced entry into the house through the back door. Robb told officers the offender kicked in the door. No evidence of forced entry was visible. Robb said that after the offender entered the house, they saw a gun in his hand and the offender started shouting obscenities at Robb and Johnson. Robb told officers that the offender was angry because he thought Robb had a male in the house and thought she may be cheating. Johnson told officers that he grabbed the offender and carried him out of the house, with the offender still holding his gun. Robb said that the offender then went to his grandmother`s house, which is half a block east, at 1014 N Fourth Ave. Robb stated the offender does not live at 1118 W Oregon, and he lives with his grandmother. Officers then went to the house at N Fourth Ave and detained the offender. The offender was placed into handcuffs and read Miranda. The offender says that he lives at 1118 Oregon, and that he is in a relationship with Robb. Robb and the offender conceded that she is pregnant with the offender`s child. He said that he went over to 1118 Oregon and opened the back door with his key. He said he got upset because he thought Robb had another male in the house. Johnson then escorted him out of the house. The offender said he never had a gun. A detective was called and the investigation is ongoing.		HADLEY, A. G.
