Daugherty also handed me an open title to the vehicle and seemed unsure of who actually owned the vehicle. A BMV check revealed that Daugherty had a driver`s status of SUSPENDED-PRIOR and also had at least one previous conviction for operating without insurance.		HASSLER, N. L.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 2020408 Fraud	I could see a large knife between the driver`s seat and the center console of the vehicle, so I asked Daugherty to exit the vehicle. Daugherty complied, but the passenger, J. Williams, was making furtive movements in her seat. I then removed her from the vehicle and obtained verbal consent to search the vehicle from Daugherty. I then looked in the passenger floorboard of the vehicle where Williams had been sitting and saw what I immediately recognized through my training and experience to be synthetic cannabinoids in a clear prescription bottle sitting next to Williams purse. I then placed Williams in handcuffs and advised her of her Miranda Rights. Williams stated that she understood her rights and advised me that the substance in the prescription bottle was Synthetic Cannabinoids. Both Williams and Daugherty were issued citations. I transported the substance to EPD Headquarters where I was able to obtain a positive field test for Synthetic Cannabinoids from the plant material in the prescription bottle. The substance had a field weight of .8 grams.		VALADEZ, D. K.
