LW 2021543 Auto Theft - Where Intent Is To Deprive Owner Of Value Or	Arhelger, Frederick Juergen (W M, 74) VICTIM of Auto Theft - Where Intent Is To Deprive Owner Of Value Or (C), at 511 N Sixth Ave, Evansville, IN, between 10:00, 11/29/2020 and 13:00, 11/29/2020. Reported: 11/30/2020. On 11/30/2020, at approximately 07:11 hours, an Evansville Police Officer learned of a named subject with a felony warrant was staying in room # 214 of the Esquire Motel, located at 1817 Old Business 41. The officer confirmed the felony warrant and asked for additional assistance. The officer was also advised the individual and her boyfriend may have a stolen vehicle and / or be armed. Officers were familiar with the named individuals from previous incidents. Officers arrived on scene and overheard a male and female talking within room # 214. Officers attempted to make contact and announced themselves, but the occupants stopped talking and refused to acknowledge or answer the door. Instead, they were overheard moving around within the room. Officers obtained permission from the leased tenant, who was not the person with the felony warrant, and management to make entry into the room. The individuals believed inside of the room at time of contact did not have contractual interest in the property. Officers again announced themselves and demanded the occupants answer the door. When they failed to do so, officers used an access card obtained from management to enter the room, but the occupants had barricaded the door. Officers used force to partially open the door. The occupants, identified in this matter as the offender and an involved other, were detained. The female with the arrest warrant, identified as the involved other in this matter, was located and arrested for her warrant. The male occupant, identified as the offender in this matter, was known to use firearms and was patted down for officer safety. During the pat down, officers located a baggy containing narcotics in his pocket. The substance field tested positive for methamphetamine and he was arrested under EPD Case # 20-21538.		THIRY, K. D.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
	The offender had also been believed to be using stolen vehicles. It was learned he and his girlfriend, the involved other, had been in a blue 2016 Chevrolet Impala. When officers checked the vehicle for stolen, it did not return stolen at time of their inquiry. However, after the offender had been arrested, Vanderburgh County Central Dispatch received a call about a blue Chevrolet Impala being stolen. The address of vehicle's registered owner and the caller's matched. Officers confirmed the vehicle in question was the same and was still located at the Esquire Motel. The victim and his room-mate, the involved other, arrived at the Esquire Motel and spoke with officers. They reported the offender was the involved other's nephew and had stayed at their residence, 511 N Sixth Avenue, the evening of 11/28/2020 into the morning of 11/29/2020. The involved other reported he had just returned home in the vehicle from a round trip to Denver, Colorado. After returning home, he reportedly took a nap between approximately 10:00 hours and 13:00 hours, around the time when the victim returned home from work. It was then they realized the offender had taken the victim's vehicle and numerous valuables belonging to the involved other, separate EPD Case # 20-21546. The victim reported he had purchased the vehicle for his niece, but she passed away and he assumed the vehicle's payments since he was financially responsible for it. Although he was paying the payments, the involved other used the vehicle for all intents and purposes. He was in the process of purchasing the vehicle from his room-mate, the victim, once he received disability payments. The offender reportedly had no contractual interest in the property and had not been previously allowed to use the vehicle. The involved other reported the offender had taken the vehicle's FOB from his bedroom when he took a nap following his trip to Denver, Colorado. Both the victim and the involved other wanted to pursue charges against the offender for auto theft. The involved other and the victim had a second vehicle FOB and were able to retrieve the vehicle in question. When they looked inside of the vehicle, the involved other located items that had been taken by the offender from his residence. However, not everything was located. He was informed the offender and his girlfriend had been arrested out of room # 214 and was advised he may wish to speak with the tenant and management about seeing if his other property was in the room. A short time later, with management's permission, officers returned to the Esquire Motel to conduct a standby with the involved other and the tenant in room # 214. The involved other located numerous other items, jewelry and clothing taken from his residence, reference EPD Case # 20-21546. At time of this report, it was determined the offender had no contractual interest in the vehicle or the property of the victim and involved other. Additionally, he had never been allowed to possess the property taken and would have no reason to believe he could do so. He assumed control of others' property with the intent to deprive them of its use and / or value.

The individuals believed inside of the room at time of contact did not have contractual interest in the property. Officers again announced their presence and demanded the occupants answer the door. When they failed to do so, an officer used an access card obtained from management to enter the room, but the occupants had barricaded the door. Officers used force to partially open the door. The occupants, identified in this matter as the offender and an involved other, were detained. The female with the arrest warrant was located and arrested for her warrant. The male occupant was known to use firearms and was patted down for officer safety. During the pat down, an officer located a baggy containing narcotics in his pocket. The substance field tested positive for methamphetamine and he was arrested under EPD Case # 20-21538. The offender had also been believed to be using stolen vehicles. When officers checked a blue 2016 Chevrolet Impala for stolen, it did not return stolen at time of their inquiry. However, after the offender and the involved other had been arrested, Vanderburgh County Central Dispatch received a call about a blue Chevrolet Impala being stolen. The address of vehicle's registered owner and the caller's matched, 511 N Sixth Avenue. Officers confirmed the vehicle in question was the same and was still located at the Esquire Motel. The victim and his room-mate, an involved other, arrived at the Esquire Motel and spoke with an officer. They reported the offender was the victim's nephew and had stayed at their residence, 511 N Sixth Avenue, the evening of 11/28/2020 into the morning of 11/29/2020. The victim reported he had just returned home yesterday morning, 11/29/2020, in the vehicle from a round trip to Denver, Colorado. After returning home, he reportedly took a nap between approximately 10:00 hours and 13:00 hours, around the time when his room-mate returned home from work. It was then they realized the offender had taken numerous valuables belonging to the victim and the room-mate's vehicle, separate EPD Case # 20-21543. Some of the items taken from the victim's residence included; jewelry, clothing, a valuable coin collection and a reportedly rare Native American collection believed to be valued in the tens-of-thousands-of-dollars. The victim did not have specific descriptions for the items, but knew a silver wheat coin and Native American pot lids, along with other circular artifacts and arrowheads were taken. The victim reported the offender had taken the vehicle's FOB and various other belongings from his bedroom when he took a nap following his trip to Denver, Colorado.

LW 2021558	Motor Vehicle- Leaving The Scene Of A Crash- Property Damage	The victim and his room-mate had a second vehicle FOB and were able to retrieve the vehicle in question. When they looked inside of the vehicle, the victim located items that had been taken by the offender from his residence. However, not everything was located. He was informed the offender and his girlfriend, an involved other, had been arrested out of room # 214 and was advised he may wish to speak with the tenant and management about seeing if his other property was in the room. A short time later, with management's permission, officers returned to the Esquire Motel to conduct a standby with the victim and the tenant, an involved other, in room # 214. The victim located numerous other items, jewelry and clothing taken from his residence. The victim located missing jewelry and clothing items inside the vehicle. The victim located additional missing jewelry, clothing and various bags / backpacks within the room. The coin and Native American collections were not located. At time of this report, it was determined the offender had no contractual interest in the vehicle or the property of the victim and his room-mate. Additionally, he had never been allowed to possess the property taken and would have no reason to believe he could do so. He assumed control of others' property with the intent to deprive them of its use and / or value. The victim wanted to speak with the offender at the jail with the hope he could get the offender to disclose where the above collections were and avoid pursuing charges with the prosecutor's office. However, he stated he would if the offender was not truthful with him. Multiple arrests were made and reports were taken. This report was submitted to the EPD Adult Investigations Unit for follow-up. A second report in reference to the auto theft was submitted to the EPD Auto Theft Unit for follow-up.	JORDAN, D. L.
