I verbally defined an area where I did not want the offender to enter and warned she would be arrested if she crossed it. The offender completely disregarded what I said and reentered the scene. I approached the offender and attempted to place her in handcuffs. The offender flexed her arms and attempted to pull away from myself and another assisting officer. While the assisting officer and I were trying to get the offender into handcuffs, she kicked the assisting officer in the groin. Force was used to detain the offender in handcuffs. An EPD Sergeant was called to the scene for the use of force. The offender was transported to the Vanderburgh County Jail under the listed charges. See affidavit for further details. Society VICTIM of Forgery- Possess/produce/distribute False Government Identif (C), at 4700 Lincoln Ave, Evansville, IN, between 20:30, 12/06/2020 and 20:55, 12/06/2020. Reported: 12/06/2020. Officers were dispatched to 5013 Fairmont Ave in reference to domestic violence in progress. The suspect in that case left the scene. A person matching that description (the offender in this case) was located walking away from the area on the parking lot of CVS, 4700 Lincoln Ave, where officers then detained him. The offender provided a fake Massachusetts driver's license with a false name, date of birth, and license number that he purported to be a real Massachusetts driver's license. After several minutes, officers determined that the license was fake and that the offender was lying about his name. The offender then provided his real name, at which point it was discovered that he had an active felony arrest warrant out of Oklahoma. Officers later determined that the offender in this case had no involvement in the original dispatched run. The offender was arrested and booked into the VCCC.	HACKWORTH, N.
