	victim, after he had received additional information. The reporting party stated he had not seen his daughter for approximately 1 month. He reported his daughter had not attended school / virtual learning in the last 28 days, according to his daughter's grandmother, identified as an involved other. His daughter frequently stayed with her grandmother and attended school while at her residence. Additionally, the reporting party received information from his niece about his daughter's inappropriate behavior on social media. Given the totality of the circumstances, the reporting party was obviously concerned his young daughter was with her drug addicted mother, somewhere on the streets, engaged in inappropriate behavior and had not attended school in almost a month. When asked about their whereabouts, the reporting party did not have a clue where his wife or daughter were. However, he stated his wife had friends at the Evansville Inn &amp; Suites, located at 2530 Old Business 41. Officers went to the Evansville Inn &amp; Suites, spoke with an employee and learned they were familiar with the involved subjects. The employee believed the victim moved between rooms #113 and #211. She reported room #211 was another employee, identified as an involved other. Officers went to room #211 and attempted to make contact, but it took some time for someone to answer the door. Eventually, a female, the employee / involved other, answered the door and confirmed the victim was inside of the room. Officers spoke with the victim and the involved other about the circumstances above. They reported the victim had been staying at the room for approximately 2 weeks and it had been approximately 1 week since the victim's mother, the offender, had been seen or heard from. The victim reported her mother was staying somewhere on the west side of Evansville, but did not know where. Both the victim and the involved other reported the offender had ignored messages and calls on social media for assistance with the victim. The victim had reportedly been ill, but could not be seen by medical professionals because they could not make contact with the offender in order to get documents signed, allowing her to receive care. It was only then, the offender reached out to them after another resident contacted her on social media telling her the police were involved. Speaking with the victim, she did not feel comfortable returning home to be with her father, the reporting party. Officers called him and spoke with him reference the above information. He denied the accusations, believed his daughter had discipline issues and did not want to live with rules as the reasoning she did not want to return to his residence. Officers were able to find a middle ground and the reporting party was amicable to his daughter staying with her grandmother since that is where she frequently stayed

LW 2022339	Residential Entry	and attended school. The victim's grandmother was contacted and arrived on scene. Officers spoke with the grandmother and it was determined the victim had her own room, her school work / computer and proper care. The reporting party was relieved his daughter had been located and happy with the arrangements. Given the totality of the circumstances, officers felt additional follow-up was prudent and necessary given the likely narcotics use by the offender and leaving her daughter to the care of others with no concern for her well-being. Additionally, the victim admitted to smoking marijuana and acknowledged truancy with school. A Child In Need of Services (CHINS) report was submitted to the EPD Juvenile Investigations Unit for follow-up. The Indiana DCS was also contacted and made aware of the situation for follow-up. The offender was not located at time of this report and no arrests were made. Foreman, Peggy Ann (B F, 57) VICTIM of Residential Entry (C), at 1112 Hatfield Dr, Evansville, IN, between 09:45, 12/13/2020 and 09:52, 12/13/2020. Reported: 12/13/2020.	JONES, N. A.
LW 2022338	Communication-Harassment	Officers were dispatched to a residential burglary in progress. Officers arrived and spoke with both maintenance and the reporter. The reporter stated that her elderly mother lives at this address and her son, the offender, showed up last night wanting a place to stay. The offender stayed last night until the reporter came to the apartment and got her mother. The offender then showed back up to the apartment today wanting maintenance to let him in to retrieve items he had left behind. The maintenance man refused and the offender kicked the door in right in front of the maintenance man. The offender gathered his xbox and some other items and left the scene on foot. When police first arrived on scene the reporter was on the phone with the offender and while listening the offender admitted to kicking the door in because he was mad he could not get into the apartment to get his items. The offender has an outstanding warrant as well but officers were unable to locate him at the time of the report. Armstrong, Jonathan Bruce (W M, 31) VICTIM of Communication- Harassment (C), at 3207 W Virginia St, Evansville, IN, between 09:30, 12/13/2020 and 10:00, 12/13/2020. Reported: 12/13/2020. Tot.Est.Loss: $60. The victim stated that her vehicle was parked on the east side of the street, facing north, in front of her residence. She advised she found the front, driver side damaged and debris underneath her vehicle as if it had been hit by another vehicle. She stated that she found the incident on her ring doorbell camera. The offender vehicle appeared to be light in color and was traveling southbound on S. Elliott Street when it struck her vehicle. There was no information left for the victim. Officers arrived on scene of a possible domestic in progress. The victim stated that the offender had already left the scene with his wallet but did not know where she might be going or if she was on foot. The IO stated that the OF arrived at the home late last night stating that she did not have anywhere to stay. The IO went on to state that the OF and VI are very back and forth so she figured it would be okay for her to stay on the couch but not bother the VI. The IO stated she awoke to the OF kicking at the VI's bedroom door and the VI stated he awoke to the OF standing over him holding a knife. The VI stated he could barely make out what the OF was rambling on about but she did accuse him of cheating. The VI stated he was able to knock the knife out of her hand but was cut in the process, then with the help of the IO he was able to get the OF out of the house. After the OF left the victim noticed that the wallet in his pants was missing as they were laying on the floor in the bedroom. The victim was given a case number for the incident and was advised to seek another PO on the offender.	JONES, N. A.

Tot.Est.Loss: $177. No victims listed. Officers were dispatched to 401 N Burkhardt Rd in reference to a recent theft. Officers were advised by dispatch that two of the suspects had left the store. Loss prevention officers were able to take two others suspects to the loss prevention office until officers arrived. When officers arrived loss prevention had determined that one of the individuals was not involved. The other individual (OF1, a juvenile) admitted to loss prevention officers that she stole two items from the store. Loss prevention officers told police that they watched on security cameras as OF1 picked up a jacket off of a shelf and put it on. She then picked up a pair of baby shoes and put them on her young child. Loss prevention also informed police that the other two suspects (OF2 and OF3) arrived with OF1. They were seen on Walmart security cameras loading items into a shopping cart. Loss prevention stated that OF1, OF2, and OF3 met up in the store and then walked past the point of sale and exited the store without paying for any of the items. When OF2 and OF3 noticed that loss prevention was about to stop them they abandoned the shopping cart with the stolen items in the entrance of the store. Loss prevention was able to get OF1 to come back to the loss prevention office, but OF2 and OF 3 fled the lot in a gold Hyundai Sante Fe.		ROSENTHAL, J. B.

V1 has a lease for Apt C that ends January 2021. Victim 2 (V2) took over the lease for Apt. D for the last few months and also has electric in her name for that apartment. Offender told Officer Adams he has a lease for Apt B downstairs, but recently moved into Apt. D because he thought it was abandoned. Offender also stated he was the maintenance man and gets $150.00 taken off his rent for apt. B for his services. Offender stated he worked for Brian Singer, but Brian quit a few months back. At the time of this report, none of the occupants know who owns the building and V1 and V2 both stated they pay rent by check sent to a PO Box for DMCKCB Property Inc. V1 arrived today to pick up some of her belongings and noticed items in her apartment were missing. V1 also heard people and sounds from a television coming from inside of Apt. D. V1 called the occupant, V2, asking if she was inside her apartment because she heard noises. V2 stated "no, nobody should be inside my apartment". V1 knocked on Apt. D and her little boy opened the door to see who was inside. When the door opened up, V1 could see some items that were missing inside her apartment, not inside Apt. D. V1 asked the offender why he was in V2's apartment and why V1's items were inside this apartment. The offender got angry and told her she could not prove it was her stuff. The argument escalated and V1 stated the offender pointed a firearm at her and her five year old child. V1 stated she was scared and called 911.	THOMAS, C. D.
