LW 2022787 Domestic Battery-simple Assault	Cater, Danielle Lynette (W F, 43) VICTIM of Domestic Battery-simple Assault (C), at 2904 S Saint James Blvd, Evansville, IN, between 14:20, 12/21/2020 and 14:30, 12/21/2020. Reported: 12/21/2020. Officers were dispatched to 2904 S Saint James Boulevard in regard to a family dispute. The victim informed Central Dispatch that her 16-year-old (offender 1) and 20-year-old (offender 2) daughters had beaten her. The victim further informed Central Dispatch that offender 2 had left in a gold colored Buick LeSabre traveling west-bound on Rheinhardt Avenue. Upon arrival, we met with the victim in the driveway. The victim advised that she was having car issues and was actively trying to fix her vehicle. The victim called offender 2, her daughter, over to the home to assist. Offender 2 arrived at the home, but discovered that she was unable to help. According to the victim, offender 2 went inside where offender 1 was located (offender 1 is offender 2's younger sister). The victim advised she heard yelling inside. The victim went inside and heard both offenders yelling at each other. The victim stepped in between both offenders, who then began trying to fight each other. The victim mentioned she was punched in the face by one of the offenders, but was unsure which exact one. The victim informed us that offender 2 had left prior to us arriving on scene, but mentioned that offender 1 was still inside of the residence. We made contact with offender 1, who informed us that her sister (offender 2) came into the residence and started going through her room. Offender 1 mentioned that they got into a verbal argument, which escalated into a fight that involved the victim. Since officers were unsure which specific offender struck the victim in the face, the victim was informed that a report would be filed. I observed red marks underneath of the victim's right eye, which I photographed using my department-issued body-worn camera. The victim also mentioned she was hit in the chin. I did not see any visible injuries, but photographed her chin as well. The victim was informed on local shelters if she felt unsafe and needed a place to stay. She was informed that she could seek a protective order against the offenders as well. The victim was unsure if she wanted to press charges. She was provided with a case number for her reference.		EAGLESON, R. C.

Phillips denied using profanities at her neighbor. She did say her neighbor and her family are constantly harassing her. She claims they don't say anything but just follow her around. She claims the people in the building are from "uptown" and all out to get her. She at first stated she didn't curse but then used several profanities. She told me she is allowed to curse when she is talking to her son. I stated she was correct and that she just didn't need to interact with any of the neighbors. This is the third different neighbor that complained about Phillips harassing them. Phillips said she was tired of the harassment and was in the process of finding another place to live. I advised her to try to keep to herself and told her I would tell her neighbors the same. Heil Rawlings, Kathryn Louise (W F, 21) VICTIM of Motor Vehicle- Leaving The Scene Of A Crash- Property Damage (C), at 800 N Green River Rd, Evansville, IN, between 14:30, 12/21/2020 and 14:50, 12/21/2020. Reported: 12/21/2020. Officers were dispatched to a hit and run report, handled over the phone. The victim stated she was leaving the main entrance to the mall. The offender vehicle was across N Green River Road, leaving that shopping complex. The victim stated that her light turned green and she turned right (into the right lane) of N Green River Rd, heading south. She stated the offender turned left (south) into the left lane, but the vehicle drifted over into her lane. The victim stated the front right (passenger) side of the offender vehicle hit the front left of her vehicle. She stated there was damage to the driver's side front tire and rim. There was also dents and scrapes to the front left side of the vehicle. She stated her mirror had been knocked in and she was afraid to fix it thinking it might come off. She attempted to stop the vehicle, but they continued southbound on Green River Road. The victim was given a case number.	FRAZIER, R. T.
