LW 2022979 Domestic Battery-bodily Injury To Pregnant Family Or Member	Mayes, Chrisney Nichole (W F, 24) VICTIM of Domestic Battery-bodily Injury To Pregnant Family Or Member (C), at 2811 Promise St, Evansville, IN, between 14:54, 12/24/2020 and 15:03, 12/24/2020. Reported: 12/24/2020. Officers were dispatched to 2811 Promise Street in regard to a disorderly conduct. Upon arrival, officers learned that the offender and the victim had been in a romantic relationship. The female (victim) informed officers that her now ex-boyfriend (offender) had cheated on her, which resulted in their break up. The female was at her residence in the driveway inside of a vehicle when the offender and the offender's mother (witness) arrived in a different vehicle. The offender wanted the car keys from the victim because the vehicle belonged to him. A struggle ensued between the victim and offender, which resulted in the offender choking the victim. The victim mentioned she could not breathe and thought she was going to fall unconscious. The victim also mentioned that she was currently pregnant with the offender's child. The offender admitted that he was the father of the victim's unborn child. Another witness (the victim's brother) stated that he observed the offender choke the victim. The offender's mother advised that she did not see the offender choke the victim, but did mention that the offender grabbed the victim. The offender was placed into handcuffs and transported to the Vanderburgh County Jail under the listed charges. See the affidavit of probable cause for further information.		MANSFIELD, M.

LW 2022987	Structure Fire	that the residence is his and the offender's daughter's apartment, who was not present. Mosby relayed that his daughter had allowed the offender to stay at her apartment. Mosby reported that the offender had been drinking and "coming off meth." Mosby stated that Smith, his other daughter, had arrived to the apartment. He reported that Smith and the offender have a poor relationship. Mosby stated that upon Smith's arrival she and the offender began to have a verbal altercation. Smith and Mosby stated that at some point during the altercation the offender obtained a knife and began pointing the knife at both of them. They stated that the offender was moving the knife in a forward motion as she was walking toward them. Mosby reported that he continued to back up and took a defensive stance because he was fearful of getting cut by the knife. Smith stated that she was unsure if the offender was going to cut herself or Mosby. It was at this time that Smith contacted 911. Officer Hackworth spoke to the offender. She reported that her and Smith were involved in a verbal altercation and she was gathering her belongings to leave the apartment. She stated that she had a knife in her hand and walked toward Smith as they continued to enage in the verbal altercation. The offender reported that Smith then "pulled a gun out," and the offender stated, "I'll stick you." The offender was placed in custody. Search incident to arrest of the offender revealed two large knives within the black backpack that was in her possession upon Officer Hackworth first seeing her when the front door of the residence was opened . Smith later provided officers with another knife that the offender had in her possession that Smith located inside of the apartment. The knives were taken to EPD headquarters and placed into evidence. The offender was taken to the VCCC and booked on the above charge.	SAMMET, N. LW 2022989 Domestic Battery-w/prior Unrelated Conviction(s)	Mccoy, Patricia Denine (W F, 56) VICTIM of Domestic Battery-w/prior Unrelated Conviction(s) (C), at 1410 E Missouri St, Evansville, IN, between 19:00, 12/24/2020 and 19:05, 12/24/2020. Reported: 12/24/2020.  Officers were dispatched to the listed address for a domestic battery that had just taken place. When officers arrived, the suspect (William Laughary) had already left. The victim states that she has been in a dating relationship with William for almost five years. They have lived together for approximately one month.  The victim states that on today's date, William became very upset toward her. He made statements about killing himself and demanded to use her phone. When the victim did not allow William to use it, he became irate. The victim states that William then punched her in the face, causing injury to her lip. William was still upset and started throwing several items at her. The victim pointed at a glass candleholder and metal rod and stated that these were thrown at her. The victim also suffered a minor puncture wound on her right leg. This appeared to be from the metal rod that was thrown at her. The victim states that she then pepper sprayed William to defend herself. The suspect then fled in a vehicle in an unknown direction. The victim was offered medical attention and victim's resources. Officer photographed the victim's injuries.  William has a prior conviction for domestic battery under 82C01-2001-F5-000690.		KLEIN, P. T.

Custody Dispute

Custody Dispute (C), at 3222 S Norman Ave, Evansville, IN, between 20:20, 12/24/2020 and 20:21, 12/24/2020. Reported: 12/24/2020. No victims listed.

Officers were dispatched to 3222 S Norman Avenue for a family dispute at 20:26 on 12/24/2020. Prior to officers arrival, dispatch received a request to cancel the run. I, Officer A. Beaver, continued to make sure everything was okay.

Upon my arrival, I heard one party saying everything was fine. Another party was saying that everything was not fine. I first spoke with Trey White. Trey is the father of the listed juvenile. Trey stated that he and the mother of the juvenile, Brace Gibson, had agreed for the juvenile to be picked up tonight.

At this time multiple individuals showed up on scene. All parties on scene began to yell at one another. The scene became hectic for about a minute before officers were able to calm things down.

I was able to return to Trey and continue our conversation. Trey presented paperwork trying to prove that he was justified in picking up the child. I was also informed that the grandmother of the child was the agreed upon individual to pick up the child. Trey stated that all he wanted was for the listed juvenile to leave with the grandmother.

I then spoke with Gibson. Gibson's main concern was for Trey to understand their court ordered paper work. Trey made it sound like he had custody of the child on all holidays. Gibson showed paper work that explained that Trey only had parenting time on the second half of the Christmas Holiday. She also did not want Trey taking the Juvenile to Indianapolis.

After more deliberation and problem solving, both parents agreed that Trey could take the juvenile to celebrate Christmas tonight, but needed to be returned to Gibson by 2300 hundred hours tonight (12/24/20). Gibson also wanted either the grandmother or grandfather to return the juvenile, not Trey.

Both parents were given case numbers for their reference.
