Reported: 12/27/2020. Officers with the Evansville Police Department were contacted by a Sheri Wall via 911 in reference to a battery report. While this officer was en route the other party, Susan Volz, called and requested an officer as well. Upon my arrival I spoke with Sheri and Matthew Wall at 708 Reis Avenue. Sheri stated her neighbor, Susan Volz knocked at her door and started making comments that Sheri and Matthew were "bringing heat" on her. Sheri stated while telling Volz to leave, Volz pushed and punched her. Matthew told me he witnessed the whole thing. Sheri and Matthew took me inside and showed me video surveillance of Sheri on the front yard of her home telling Volz to leave. I can see Volz hand swing in the air and Sheri step back as if she was hit. Sheri did not have any apparent injury but, requested a case number to file charges. I provided Sheri with the case number and went to speak with Volz. Volz was outside and began telling me Sheri and Matthew were dealing marijuana and she went to confront them. I explained to Volz she is not a police officer and to stay away from the Walls property. Volz denied punching Sheri but, admitted she pushed her out of fear that Sheri was going to push her.	HENRICH, M. R.
